

2. Personnel of the armed forces of the Parties present in a Special Caution Area shall establish and maintain communications, in accordance with the Annex to this Agreement, and undertake any other measures that may be later agreed upon by the Parties, in order to prevent dangerous military activities and to resolve any incident that may arise as a result of such activities.

3. Each Party has the right to terminate an arrangement with respect to a designated Special Caution Area. The Party intending to exercise this right shall provide timely notification of its intent to the other Party, including the date and time of termination of the arrangement, by means of the communications channel set forth in paragraph 3 of Article VII of this Agreement.

ARTICLE VI

1. When personnel of the armed forces of one Party, in proximity to personnel and equipment of the armed forces of the other Party, detect interference with their command and control networks that could cause harm to them or damage to their equipment, they may inform the relevant personnel of the armed forces of the other Party if they believe that the interference is being caused by the personnel and equipment of the armed forces of that Party.

2. If the personnel of the armed forces of the Party having received the information establish that this interference with the command and control networks is being caused by their activities, they shall take expeditious measures to terminate the interference.

ARTICLE VII

1. For the purposes of implementing the provisions of this Agreement, the armed forces of the Parties shall establish and maintain communications as provided for in the Annex to this Agreement.

2. The armed forces of the Parties shall exchange appropriate information in a timely manner on instances of dangerous military activities or incidents that may arise as a result of such activities, as well as on other issues related to this Agreement.

3. The Chief of the Defence Staff of the Canadian Forces shall convey information referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article through the Military Attaché of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics in Ottawa. The Chief of the General Staff of the Armed Forces of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics shall convey such information through the Defence Attaché of Canada in Moscow.

ARTICLE VIII

1. This Agreement shall not affect the rights and obligations of the Parties under other international agreements and arrangements in force between the Parties, nor the rights of individual or collective self-defence and of navigation and overflight, in accordance with international law. The Parties shall implement the provisions of this Agreement, taking into account the sovereign interests of both Parties.
