POCIL management has been involved in supplying Canadians and various other nationalities to the oil and gas industry for the past 20 years.

POCIL prides itself on the type of service and the quality of personnel it provides, which are made up from various nationalities to suit the client's needs. These include Canadian, Philipinos, Mauritian, Thais, Maltese and other nationalities can be available upon request. POCIL can help you decide in this regard and recommend which nationality is best suited for a particular job or area. Anywhere from paint crews in the Nort Sea, to roustabouts/flourhands/derrickmen/drillers/electricians/mechanics/crane operators/storekeepers/doctors/welders/radio operators, are currently engaged through POCIL on rigs around the globe.

Whether it's an oilspill clean up job - a rig move - a maintenance job - or a drilling operation, POCIL has the know how and the crews to perform. Visas, airline bookings and payroll services are other services provided by POCIL.
