

Canada, DFAIT with the assistance of Ms Peggy Mason, BGen (ret) Ian Douglas and Col (ret) Douglas Fraser of the Canadian Council for International Peace and Security [CCIPS]. Practical Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Measures for Peacebuilding (Ottawa, April 1997).

Canada, DFAIT. State Authorization and Inter-State Information Sharing Concerning Small Arms Manufacturers, Dealers and Brokers (Ottawa, February 1999).

Canada. DFAIT, with assistance from David DeClerq, The Role of Ammunition Controls in Addressing Excessive and Destabilizing Accumulations of Small Arms (April 1998).

Canada, DFAIT, with assistance from (Col) retired Angus Brown, An International Register of Small Arms and Light Weapons: Issues and Model (Ottawa, October 1998).

International Organizations -&- Treaties – Agreements, Resolutions and Publications

Convention on Prohibitions or Restrictions on the Use of Certain Conventional Weapons Which May be Deemed to be Excessively Injurious or to Have Indiscriminate Effects Geneva, 10 October 1980.

European Parliament. Code of Conduct for Arms Exports (14 May, 1998).

NATO Document AC 225, 16 April, 1989.

The Proceedings of the International Workshop on Wound Ballistics, held in Interlaken and Thun, Switzerland 8-9 October, 1997.

Permanent Council of the Organization of American States (OAS). Inter-American Convention Against Illicit Manufacturing of and Trafficking in Firearms, Ammunition and Explosives and Other Related Materials. General Assembly AG/RES. 1 (XXIV-E/79) (13 November 1997).

United Nations. Report of UN Panel of Experts on Small Arms (A/52/298, 27 August 1997).

United Nations. Resolution on Illicit Arms Flow 1209 (1998) (19 Nov 1998 document S/1998/1091).

United Nations. UNGA Resolution 52/38J (9 Dec 1997).

United Nations. UNGA Resolution 50/70B (17 Nov 1995).