Peacebuilding in Cambodia
January 1998
Chris Cooter, DRAFT

The report summarizes discussions between the author, an officer at the Canadian High Commission in New Delhi, and organizations and individuals involved in peacebuilding in Cambodia within the context of its 1998 elections. It presents their views on the issues and describes the capacity of Cambodian civil society to address the challenges of demobilization in the transition period. The main areas of peacebuilding activities covered in the report include electoral reform, legal systems, human rights, media, conflict resolution, the national assembly and regional initiatives. The report does not address recommendations for Canadian foreign policy.
