

Accordingly, Mr. Speaker, with the house went up to the Senate chamber.

And being returned:

• (12:30 p.m.)

Mr. Speaker informed the house that the Deputy Governor General had been pleased to give, in Her Majesty's name, the royal assent to the following bills:

An Act to authorize the making of contributions by Canada toward the cost of programs for the provision of assistance and welfare services to and in respect of persons in need.

An Act to amend the Canadian Corporation for the 1967 World Exhibition Act.

An Act to amend the Income Tax Act.

An Act to establish a corporation for the administration of the National Arts Centre.

An Act to incorporate Bank of Western Canada.

Royal Assent

An Act respecting certain conditions of employment of dock workers at the Ports of Montreal, Trois-Rivières and Quebec.

Mr. Speaker: Before announcing the adjournment of the house may I be allowed to thank hon. members for the all too generous comments they expressed with regard to me a few moments ago. I should like to assure hon. members that I feel very sincerely, from the bottom of my heart, that anything I have been able to accomplish was possible because of the excellent co-operation I have received from members on both sides of the house.

Pursuant to special order, the house adjourned at 12.35 a.m. until Wednesday, October 5, 1966, at 2.30 p.m.
