Question No. 37—Mr. Young (Acadie—Bathurst):

For the classification audits of Departmental Public Service positions prior to 1988, have all the observations made relative to over classification etc. been corrected and, if not, which departmental audits have not been corrected and when will these be corrected?

Mr. Albert Cooper (Parliamentary Secretary to Minister of State and Leader of the Government in the House of Commons): Time required to prepare this answer: 5 hours and 32 minutes

Approximate cost: $98.

I am informed by the Treasury Board Secretariat as follows:

See attached.

The results of the 1985-1986 biannual audit showed 417 of a total sample of 3,568 positions had been incorrectly evaluated (11 percent error rate). Based on available information, the vast majority, if not all, of the proposed corrective measures have been implemented to our satisfaction.

Since the last audit, Treasury Board Secretariat has introduced a number of control measures to ensure that each year the departments undertake classification control and audit activities. Reports are produced quarterly and annually for Treasury Board review and analysis in order to rate the departments on the quality of their classification control systems. Only departments which have received a "Fully Satisfactory" rating and maintain a rate of incorrect decisions below 10 percent are granted increased classification authority.

This annual report is also one of the elements used in the comprehensive evaluation of the departments.

Specific information pertaining to Mr. Ng's involvement in programming as well as the level of pay he may be receiving is personal information about Mr. Ng and therefore cannot be disclosed as it would contravene the Privacy Act.

Federal inmates may earn anywhere from $5.25 to $6.90 per day in an institution, depending on their performance on the job. Inmates who refuse to either work or participate in institutional programs are not paid.
