

in which case the mistake shall be rectified, and the presiding officer shall recommence taking the vote.

Rule 30.—When the decision of any question is doubted, the presiding officer shall direct the Conductor to count the votes in the affirmative and negative, and report the same to him.

Rule 31.—The yeas and nays upon any question before the Division may be called for by two members, and upon the assent of one-third of the members present, shall be so taken.

Rule 32.—In taking the yeas and nays, the R. S. shall call the roll and record the yeas and nays; after the roll is called the result shall be read aloud to rectify mistakes, if any, after which the R.S. shall hand the vote to the W. P. who shall announce the same.

Rule 33.—In voting by yeas and nays all present in regular standing in the Division must vote, unless excused by the Division, but no member shall vote who was not in the room at the time the question was put. A motion to excuse shall be decided without debate.

FILLING BLANKS.

Rule 34.—When any blank is to be filled, by the names of persons, a vote shall be taken on the names in the order of their nomination; but when a blank is to be filled by any sum of money or time proposed, the question shall be first put on the largest sum and most remote time.

RE-CONSIDERATION AND REPEAL.

Rule 35.—A question may be re-considered any time during the session, or at the first regular session held hereafter; but a motion for re-consideration being once made, and decided in the negative, shall not be renewed before the next regular session.

Rule 36.—A motion to re-consider must be made and seconded by members who voted in the majority,
