I have examined with much attention the "First Book in Latin" of Professors M'Clintock and Crooks, and am happy to bear testimony to the practical tact and sound scholarship which they have shown in the preparation of the work. The arrangement is simple and lucid, and the gradual steps by which the youthful student is introduced to the grammatical laws of the language, both as it regards etymology and syntax, are such as, in my estimation, to render the book deserving of the patronage of every institute. I most heartily wish it the extensive circulation it so eminently deserves.—JOHN J. OWEN, Principal of the Cornelius Institute.
