The dreams of the visionary have "come to pass!" the unseen El Dorado of the "fathers" looms, in all its virgin freshness and beauty, before the eyes of their children! The "set time" for the Golden age, the advent of which has been looked for and longed for during many centuries of iron wrongs and hardships, has fully come. In the sunny clime of the south-west—in Upper California—may be found the modern Canaan, a land "flowing with milk and honey," its mountains studded, and its rivers lined and choked with gold!

He who would know more of this rich and pure land before commencing his pilgrimage to its golden bosom, will find in the last part of this new edition of a most deservedly popular work, a succinct yet comprehensive account of its inexhaustible riches and its transcendent loveliness, and a fund of much needed information in regard to the several routes which lead to its inviting borders.

From the Buffalo Commercial.

This new edition was announced some weeks since as being about to be put to press. Its appearance is timely; its subject matter highly interesting; and its external, of Buffalo manufacture, are not only creditable to the house whence it is issued, but really honorable to the city. The value of the new edition is greatly enhanced by the addition of the Physical Geography of California, and recent and authentic notices of the Gold Region. Although this edition has been out but a few days, yet so extensive have been the orders that preparations have already been commenced for putting another edition to press.

OREGON AND CALIFORNIA. — "The Exploring Expedition to the Rocky Mountains, Oregon and California, by Bvt. Col. J. C. FREMONT." It is a fair 12mo. of 456 pages just issued by G. H. Derby & Co., Buffalo. Fremont's Narrative is one of the most lucid and interesting we ever read, and well worthy of perusal if there were no gold in California. The additional matter is made up from the recent fugitive advices from the Gold Region. Altogether, the book is a capital one, even for those who do not think of wending their way far westward, and we recommend it especially to the thousands who have frequently beset Members of Congress for copies of Fremont. Now that the hope of getting them out of Congressmen is at an end, while three fourths of the applications must have been unsuccessful, we advise the Californians to walk up to the Captain's office and buy Mr. Derby's edition. The letter press is far better than that of Congress.
