REAL DUCK.

Shelter and good anchorage can also be obtained inside or to the N. E. of the Real Duck Island.

NOTE.—There is a channel between South Bay Point and the Outer Drake, which, however, should not be attempted except with a leading wind, in fine weather, and by a good pilot, as a dangerous shoal exists between this island and the point

SACKETT'S HARBOUR.

I have not visited this Harbour, and I have experienced some difficulty in obtaining authentic information respecting it; that which is here given, however, can be relied upon.

It is not a port of so much importance in a mercantile point of view as many others, although, from the great depth of water in the bay, its secure and sheltered position, and tolerably easy access, it should be ranked amongst the best on the Lake. These recommendations, together with its capabilities of being strongly fortified, have induced the Government of the United States to make it their Naval Depot or Arsenal.

SITUATION.

It is situated on the south shore of Black River Bay, an arm of the Lake running several miles inland, having point Peninsula bearing W. by N. about nine miles, Great Stoney Island and Great Galloo Island, bearing W. by S. eleven and fifteen miles respectively.

LIGHTHOUSE.

The lighthouse is built on a rock called Horse Island, at the South-Western point of Black River Bay, one and a half miles W. of the Harbour; it has a good fixed bright light. The lighthouse on the Galloo Island is at its S. W. end, bearing W. by S. ½ S., distant 21 miles.
