"I requested the senator to give me just thirty seconds to tell him about conditions in Mexico. He refused. He told me to put whatever statement I had to make in writing and send it to him. I am informed that everything in writing that comes before this commission finds itself in the hands of the Mexican junta maintained in this city working against Gen. Huerta. I have tried to see Secretary of State Bryan. I was informed by Secretary Tumuity that I could not see the president, and when I called at Secretary Tumuity that I could not see the president, and when I called at Secretary Tumuity that I could not see the president, and when I called at Secretary Tumuity that I could not see the president to attend tonight and would extend the invitation for next Sunday night.
