MITCHELL THINKS

Civic Officials of New York Enjoined to Be Tight-Lipped.

DEVELOP PLAN

And Avoid Making Glittering Promises to People of Gotham.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1 .- (Can. Press)policy of silence among department eads regarding their administration of ranches of the city government during their first few months in office was suggested to his appointees by John Purroy Mitchel upon his inauguration as mayor today as successor of Adolph L. Kline, who became mayor upon the death of Wm. J. Gaynor.

"We will develop our program slowly,"
Mr. Mitchel announced in the presence of some of his cabinet, the retiring mayor and others who gathered at the city hall to see the new executive take office.
"It will not be necessary to go to the people of the city every day to tell them what we propose to do. It will be better for us to wait a little while and then go to them and tell them what we are doing and have done.

Mum's the Word.

"I caution the new heads of the departments to self-restraint and simplicity, and I advise them to follow the policy which I have outlined for myself, amely silence for a few months until namely, silence for a few months until we have developed our plans further and can come to the people and point to some accomplishment. I would rather have the government of this city for the next few months inconspicuous than have it heralded from day to day in the papers thru promises made as to what will be done."

Mayor Mitchel urged "team work" among the department heads, and promised the fulfilment of the campaign pledges given by the Fusion party which elected him to office.
