

The reason back of Hickey Suits at $12.50

THERE'S a buying reason—a type of careful, painstaking merchandising that calls no task too great. We make our selections carefully, slowly, by a system that leaves no part of clothes uninvestigated or untried.

WE do these things as a guarantee your satisfaction and a warranty of worth for our displays—it's a type of protection that few stores give you, at $12.50.

GRAND CHALLENGE CUP TO REMAIN AT HARVARD
The abandonment of the English regatta for 1915 will leave the principal trophy, the Grand Challenge Cup, in America for another year at least. The classic prize for eight-oared crews was won by the Harvard University second crew last summer and under ordinary conditions would have been returned for competition again this spring in accordance with the deed of gift which made the Grand Challenge Cup a permanent prize. The annual regatta, which is the most famous of the Henley awards, was awarded in 1913, the initial year of the Henley regatta, and has been held for each year since the first contest, more than seventy-five years ago. Although won by Belgian and Australian crews in past years, it is a tradition that the trophy should remain in the hands of the English, and the first break in the annual regatta should come the season following the triumph of the Yankee eight.

"Made in Canada"

Extra Fine Flavor

Cosgraves (Chill-Proof) Pale Ale

We say Cosgraves (Chill-Proof) Pale Ale has "extra fine flavor in its favor"—and that is precisely what we prove in every bottle, but to produce this extra fine flavor we use only first-grade hops and select barley and malt. The increase in the daily demand tells a story that you can only imagine until you have tasted the beer—then you will know.

On sale at all dealers and hotels.

Serve "Cosgraves" in your home.

GERMAN GOLD SHORTAGE

TWO BILLION MARKS
All Banks Denuded of Gold Except Reichsbank, and People Have None.
Special Cable to The Toronto World.
BERNE, March 9.—Careful investigation among the German banks proves that they are cleared of gold, but a comparison between the amount of gold held by the Reichsbank and the amount which should be in the country shows that two billion marks in gold have been withdrawn from circulation. An appeal has been made to every patriotic German to put his last gold piece in circulation, and the appeal concludes with the assertion that the patriotic German cannot do better than exchange his gold for the second war loan stock. I am credibly informed that except the Reichsbank, no bank possesses any gold reserve throughout Germany. The income tax imposed by municipalities is being raised on an average by about 50 per cent.
