JOHN CATTO & SON
85-87 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO.
WAITED LONG FOR SHAW
BUT AUDIENCE WAS KIND
Candidate Didn't Arrive Until 10.40 p.m., Giving Budding Orators Golden Opportunity.
Notwithstanding the fact that it was 10.40 p.m. before W. H. Shaw, Liberal candidate in North Toronto, began speaking at his meeting last night, the audience patiently awaited him while several speakers threaded their way thru the intricate mazes of the reciprocity pact and all its ramifications.
The meeting was held in the hall at 120 West Bloor-st. and was attended by 150 people, of whom a few were ladies.
The gathering was orderly and attentive.
E. Fielding, the first speaker, mingled his review of the agreement with a little humor that lived up matters and sent them off to a good start.
J. T. Thompson attempted to explain the paradox of higher prices for the farmer and lower prices for the consumer, but with the unsatisfactory result that the ground had been pretty well covered by previous speakers.
He closed by laying great stress upon the alleged good the Liberal government had done, especially for the workman.
He and he couldn't see why the Liberals should be charged with disloyalty.
Besides the speakers on the platform were: G. W. Kerr, who presided, John Dunbar, Andrew Semple, ex-M.P., Geo.
C. Campbell and Prof. Farmer of Mc-Master University.
A MEDLEY OF MERRIMENT.
"What kind of a career have you mapped out for your boy, Josh?"
"I'm going to make a lawyer of him," answered Farmer. "He's got other folks' business, and he might as well get paid for it."—Western Christian Advertiser.

W. F. TICKLE, M.L.A., IS CANDIDATE IN KINGSTON
Unanimous Choice of Kingston Conservatives—Good Chance of Carrying the Riding.
KINGSTON, Sept. 12.—(Special).—W.
F. Tickle, M.L.A., is the Liberal Conservative choice as standard bearer in the coming Dominion election.
His nomination was unanimous.
The convention to-night was one of the most largely attended political assemblies in the history of the city.
The meeting was held in the city hall,
and was filled to overflowing.
Mr. Tickle's resignation as member of the provincial house will be in the hands of the speaker to-day.
Mr. Tickle, in his address, strongly denounced reciprocity as not only being detrimental to Canada's welfare, reckoned in dollars and cents, but also to Canada's nationality.
Speaking of the thirteen Liberal millionaires, of whom the Liberal party had stated that they were well rid of the reciprocity question, Mr. Tickle stated that if they way had been denounced, the Liberal party, as it was before the bolted, they should also carry some weight now on the reciprocity question.
The other speakers were Aid. Dr.
Ross, Ex-Mayor Wm. Frizzell, John Sowards, D. M. MacIntyre, K.C., city solicitor; Mayor Graham, Dr. Edwards, member for Frontenac, and candidate in the coming election, and Wm. R. Givens, editor of The Daily Standard and president of the Liberal Conservative Association.
From the enthusiasm and general tone of the convention there is no doubt, but that Kingston will be once more represented in the Dominion house by a Conservative. Dr. Edwards, the Conservative candidate for Frontenac, is confident of being returned by a even larger majority than in the last election.
To Encourage Apprentices.
Over fifty apprentices and improvers were registered at the meeting of the "Young Men's Union," held in the Labor Temple last night. The union proposes to let the apprentices and improvers to the union, and to let them to the future. Educational meetings will be conducted for the benefit, and at the end of the prescribed five years' apprenticeship they will be given an examination.
If they pass, they will be admitted into the union as full-fledged journeymen.
It is claimed that in some shops the apprentices do not receive an all-round training, and this method is proposed as a remedy.

A Use For Everything.
"Jack, where's your shoe horn?"
"Shoe horn? What in thunder do you want it for?"
"To try on this new dress."
