JOTTINGS FROM NEAR-BY PLACE

VAANCEK. A most enjoyable farewell entertainment was held at the home of Mr. John Campbell on Wednesday night, Mr. Campbell (who is a son of Mr. Peter Campbell), having been leaving soon, gave an entertainment to his friends. The chair was taken by Squire A. C. Atwood, when the following programs was carried out: Speech and song, Mr. Dan Fraser, two songs by Mr. Duane Campbell, and very appropriate speeches by Messrs. McLeod, McNair and Dan Campbell.

LOBO. Lobo, March 26.—As a fitting close for the season of the Katesville Debating Club at Dewar's school, Lobo, an entertainment was given on Friday evening, March 26, by the debating club, under the management of Squire A. C. Atwood, councillor for that ward, took the chair. The programs was sustained chiefly by local talent, assisted by Mr. Will McLeod, of London, Ontario, who acted as the popular Bill little 11-year-old eloquist, Miss Lella Lindsay, who responded in three long and difficult pieces. Her acting and manner of delivery were far beyond her years, and were admired by all. Evidently Miss Lindsay will in the future appear as a prominent eloquist. Notwithstanding the mud-bub-dub—the house was full and overflowing for the girls and boys of Lobo are not afraid of a little mud, and occasionally they will "dance all night till broad daylight. And go home with the girls in the morning."

MOUNT CARMEL. Mount Carmel, March 26.—A League will hold a box social at the church on Friday evening, March 27. A special program will be given, including a debate on the proposition: "That the world has been made happier by wealth and luxury." The affirmative is to be taken by Roland Wilton and John Walker, negative by John Dymond and Miss Lipsett, of Mount Brydges. Sugar-making is the order of the day in this neighborhood. Mr. C. Humphrey has returned home after spending the summer in Manitoba and New Ontario. A large number of young people spent an enjoyable evening lately at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilton, the time being spent in games, songs, etc. The young ladies served a fine lunch, and this affair was a great success. Alex. Almost of the serene cocoonism, was cutting wood in the bush, when his axe glanced and struck his foot, severing two of his toes. Drs. Thomson and Berdan attended him.

DEATH OF W. H. JENKINS. Toronto, March 26.—Mr. Wm. H. Jenkins, B. A., until recently minister of the education department, secretary of the education council, and principal of the Owen Sound Collegiate Institute, died at Middleburg on Sunday, March 24. He had been suffering for some time, owing to ill health, and went to a Muskoka sanatorium. Deceased was about 40 years of age. After graduating from Toronto University in 1896 he went as science master to Owen Sound Collegiate. He became principal in 1893 and held it until 1922, when he succeeded Dr. Pakenham as registrar of the education department. A widow, and two sons survive him.
