THE U. S. HOUSE OF LORDS.
In The Twentieth Century Magazine Dr. W. De Witt Hyde, president of Bowdoin College, has an interesting and suggestive article on the abolition of the house of lords. The subject, however, is not the hereditary British chamber, but the United States Senate and the rapidly increasing group of men, hereditary trust incorporation, who control taxation. Incidentally, he refers to the insurgency movement in the pending electoral campaign. The only hope of the Republican party is to shift the tariff issue from the merely economic aspect of it to the political side. This latter is the inconsistency and injustice of having the tariff assessed by the very persons who are to profit by it.

The extraordinary powers now possessed by the senate are undoubtedly a serious menace to the mass of the people. By utilizing to the utmost its original constitutional position, the senate has gradually acquired a controlling influence in legislation and in foreign affairs far exceeding that possessed by a Liberal house of commons in Britain. At bottom the the insurgency movement, with its call for senatorial election by the people and for nomination at direct primaries, is a revolt against senate dominance. President Hyde regards the independent in politics as acting the part of the steersman in a boat. He need not be as strong or heavy as the men who row. But by inclining to this side or that he can determine where the boat shall go. Independent members, whether of congress or parliament, are, under existing conditions in Canada and the United States, performing the greatest service the time demands.

BRITISH EMPEROR.
We are inclined to doubt whether the propaganda started on behalf of the proposal to change the sovereign's present title to that of "Emperor of the British," will commend itself to the people interested. Some there may be to whom the proposal will appeal, those possessed of a passion for novelty, or others who are uneasy at the notion of opposing anything that makes even a superficial appeal to the sentimental. To The World's mind the replacement of the old and good name of king by any other less historic appellation would be a decided loss and most unwelcome to a very large section of public opinion in the overseas British states. Certainly the associations that attach to the word emperor are far removed from the present course of the imperial evolution, and the expressions "Empire" and "Imperial" have to be used for brevity's sake, and because there is unfortunately no other noun or adjective more appropriately covers the meaning intended to be conveyed.

Instead of agitating for an entirely unnecessary interference with the national tradition, those who are arguing the question might employ themselves to better advantage by inventing or discovering some happy term that will enable both empire and imperial to be superseded. The kind of union which, as presently appears, the British nations are to form, will be unprecedented in the annals of history. It will not be that of federated states, there will be no representative or other body exercising control or supervision over them. Each will and must be absolutely free to govern itself and supreme within its own boundaries. Without any formal constitution, the British nations will stand together adjusting their particular policies to the common good and proceeding by consultation and co-operation. Closer than any alliance for special or general purposes among separate nations the British union will leave its component states as unfettered while developing in each a wider outlook and responsibility. Empire does not correctly describe this kind of relationship, tho it may with a dependency like India. In the meantime, however, empire must be used with a very different meaning from that it first connoted.

SAVED FROM FEARFUL DEATH.
CALUMET, Mich., Aug. 30.—At the Red Jacket shaft of the Calumet and Hecla mine, Mike E. Sunrich, a timberman, fell into the shaft. He fell before he grasped the rope, saving himself from a fall of a mile to the bottom of the shaft. His hands were badly burned, but he was clinging from the cable when rescued.

Angus Morrison Dead.
LONDON, Ont., Aug. 30.—Angus Morrison, one of the best known oil operators in America, died here very suddenly from a hemorrhage of the throat. For many years he lived in Toronto, later going to Hamilton as manager of the Imperial Oil Company. Forty years ago he founded the Morrison Oil Company, London. He was 69 years old.

HONORS FOR VANNUPELLI

Anglican at Ottawa Protests at Government's Action.

OTTAWA, Aug. 30.—A leading Anglican of the Archdiocese of Ottawa makes vigorous protest in The Citizen this morning against the manner in which the whole machinery of the federal government is being used to boom the eucharistic congress at Montreal. He says:
"Two ecclesiastical dignitaries, representatives of two great divisions of the Christian church, are visiting Canada. One is the Bishop of London, a subject of King George and a representative of the state Church of England; the other is Cardinal Vannutelli, a subject of the King of Italy and a representative of the Church of Rome. The Bishop of London, on his arrival in this country, met with a fitting reception from the Anglican body, but very properly, received no official recognition from the Canadian Government."
"With Cardinal Vannutelli a different course is pursued. The government, representing all Canadians without regard to sectarian differences, has selected one of its members to welcome the Italian on behalf of the people of Canada, the troops maintained by the taxation of Catholics and Protestants alike, ordered to serve as his bodyguard, and the government steamer Lady Grey is placed at his disposal. What is the cardinal to Canada, or Canada to him, who should be singled out for such honors?"

ORIENTAL LABOR ISSUE

Chief Topic of Laurier Meeting at Nelson, B. C.

NELSON, B. C., Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Safe as the Conservative organizers think the southern ridings of British Columbia are, 8000 heard Laurier last night. Apart from the remarks of Sir Wilfrid, the observations of the other speakers ran close to party lines, although this seemed to please the palate of the audience.
"If the enthusiasm on the occasion of Sir Wilfrid's tour thru British Columbia represents the Liberal vote at the next election, then British Columbia will restore herself to her former political position," declared Ralph Smith, M. P., touching upon the oriental problem.
"You were told in 1904," said the premier, "that if the Liberal party was turned to power you could say good-bye to a white British Columbia. Have there been Asiatic hordes? There never was a time in the history of British Columbia when there have been so few Asiatics as there have been since the Liberals were elected."
The chief engineer, acting for the government, can make his statement as he likes concerning the labor," said Hon. G. P. Graham, "but I would have you know that there have not been orientals engaged on the G. T. P., and there won't be."

LOOTED THE LARDER

Employees of R. & O. Steamer Accused of Wholesale Thieving.

Fritz Hess, baker of the steamer Toronto; John Hollows, butcher on the boat; Fred Fenton, the cook; and Chas. Lewis, a waiter, were arrested yesterday. The first three are charged with theft of stores from the steamer, and the waiter with the theft of a large quantity of provisions. Complaints as to the falling off in the quality of the catering on the steamer had been made by passengers on short rotations, the accused were enabled to bring sides of beef, whole hams, hams, chickens and other table luxuries into Toronto, where they disposed of them to local restaurant-keepers. A large basket containing two sides of lamb, two quarters of beef, a side of smoked bacon and several hams were seized by the police yesterday.

Another Innovation in Railway Travel.

It is the growing time for Canada, and it is also the growing time for the Grand Trunk Railway System. The popularity of the International Limited, the finest and fastest train in Canada, has made larger cars an absolute necessity in order to provide room for the growing traffic. The result of this is a handle this train larger and swifter locomotives have been especially designed and built. But before this was done the 80-lb. rail was replaced with 100-lb. steel. After all that is the foundation—the roadbed.
The cafe-parlor cars, which have done service since the establishment of this splendid train, are now replaced by new diners, which are pioneers in their way. The new cars are 70 feet 7 inches long, 10 1/2 feet wide, 14 1/2 feet high. They are equipped with electric lights, electric fans, etc. The dining room is finished in African mahogany, upholstered with black leather. These cars were made in the Montreal shops of the Grand Trunk Railway.
New parlor cars similar in excellence to the dining cars are operated on the International Limited.

The society will be organized for a provincial law, the present method of each municipality drawing up its own law being very unsatisfactory.

THE KAISER EXPLAINS

Intimates That Previous Remarks Were Misunderstood.

DANZIG, Aug. 30.—Emperor William, at a dinner last night in the castle at Marienburg, the old seat of the knights of the Teutonic order, gave a speech in which he explained his attitude toward the world. He said that his attitude was a counterpart of that delivered last week at Königsberg. Taking the Königsberg speech, which his majesty evidently regarded as having been misunderstood by the press, he said:
"When I represented myself, like my sainted grandfather, as being under the protection of the highest and as working under the highest commission of our Lord and God, I assumed that every honest Christian, whoever he might be, did the same."

First Mass of Young Priest.

Yesterday morning in St. James' Church, Adjala, Rev. Frank Morrissey, who was ordained last Sunday by Bishop Fallon of London, gave his first mass in his native parish. He was assisted by Rev. Fathers Wilson, Egan, Allison and Father Morphy. The Rev. Dr. Tracy of Dixie preached the sermon, in which he commended the young priest to the people of that locality, which gave 15 priests and 21 nuns to the home of the young priest, the pastor, presented the young priest with a gold chalice and a purse of gold on behalf of the people. Father Morrissey replied by thanking the priests and people for the kindness extended to him.

HONORABLY ACQUITTED

Assault Case at Barrie Was Brought by Man Who Began the Row.

BARRIE, Aug. 30.—B. J. Moore, Jr., came before Judge Wiseman here to-day on a charge of assaulting George Rolph of Midland, and was honorably acquitted.

On June 22 last, Mr. Moore was set upon and brutally assaulted by George Rolph, his stable man, who first attempted to brain him with a spade, and after Mr. Moore had taken this from him, he picked up a club and struck Mr. Moore a severe blow on the head, and would, no doubt, have killed him, as he said he would, had not Mr. Moore saved his fists and defended himself from this man, who seemed to have attacked him like a wild maniac.

In the melee, however, Rolph had one rib broken and was hurt about the head. His wife consulted W. H. Bennett, ex-M.P., who advised that Moore be prosecuted, and Mr. Bennett prosecuted Mr. Moore to-day. It developed to-day that Mr. Bennett and R. L. White, Jr., of Midland, are political opponents, and that Moore is a brother-in-law of White. T. C. Robinson, K.C., of Toronto, and Mr. Finlayson of Midland, appeared for Moore and called the judge's attention to the high ball Moore had been put under, namely $3000. The crown attorney said $300 would have been enough.

Dr. Rolph said that Moore had said that he should not have been put to the indignity of going to a criminal trial, while many expressions were heard from citizens about the putting of the county to a large expense in prosecuting a groundless case.

OSTEOPATHY
As taught and practiced by James Miller, M.D., in 1890, who put this great scientific basis.
People who suffer and are racked with pain lose faith in everything, thinking that some strong drug is their only hope. But, no, this great science of Osteopathy has saved thousands of lives and prevented hundreds of operations. Cause, also stiff joints, rheumatism, and all other diseases caused from poor circulation troubles, which, aggravated by east winds, affect the most delicate patients. We never fail to cure these diseases. We have removed our down town offices to 28 Bloor East, which is the first osteopathic establishment in Canada. Female patients are met by our lady attendant and are prepared for treatment. This overcomes the humiliating and bad moral effect of going to public buildings, where no lady attendant is kept. Dr. Dutton gives all treatments, except when lady patients request a lady great science. You call on us and we will be pleased to explain all about this
