

CITY COUNCIL TO HAVE FEW NEW MEMBERS THIS YEAR

SITTING MEMBERS KEEP WARD ONE

Aldermen Johnston, Honeyford, Hiltz Re-elected in Last Year's Order.

Apparently ward one didn't believe there was any need of a municipal election. Its sitting members, Aldermen Johnston, Honeyford and Hiltz were elected in exactly the same order as last year. Nearly two thousand more votes were shown in voting against the figures for 1919, but more than 4000 less than those recorded for 1918. This will be the third year the three councillors for 1920 have sat at the council board. It is noteworthy that one of the two defeated candidates has suffered defeat three successive times in this ward. This is A. J. Stubbs. However, he gained 33 more votes than he did last year. W. J. Storey, Labor candidate, made a good showing, even though he ran last on the list. He polled more than 1300 votes. Rev. Francis Edward Powell won the fight for the board of education hands down, his nearest opponent, Percy McKay, Douglas being nearly 1500 votes behind in the race. Ernie Cooke with 1244 votes and Frank Pearson with 1169 votes and Mr. Beamish followed some distance behind the two successful candidates. Both Mr. Powell and Mr. Beamish were new men, Mr. Beamish being the labor candidate for the ward.

Women Chary of Voting.
The general absence of the women's vote featured the election. However, some subdivisions recorded excellent figures. Among these were subdivisions 11, 12, 13 and 14, all registered at Bolton Street School, near Broadview and Dundas street. Here the vote was on a basis of fifty-fifty. On the other hand, Riverdale Collegiate with 600 or more voters reported only about 50 women.

Charlie Miller, general eastern organizer for the Association of Mc-Bridists, devoted to the cause of Sam McBride, stated that voting in the wards was generally light, the fairly heavy in ward one. He stated that Sam McBride was having a stiff fight all along the line.

EX-ALDERMAN WINS SEAT IN WARD TWO

Beamish First, Winnett Second, and Risk Close Third.

Aldermen.
J. R. Beamish 2884
John Winnett 2675
C. S. Risk 2661
Clara Brett Martin 1314
Frederick Hogk 1286
Joseph Kent 988
J. N. Day 668
Henry Hine 463

Board of Education.
Dr. John Noble 3436
S. J. Brown 1735
F. A. Magee 1415
F. J. Carney 549

One new man in the shape of an ex-alderman was elected to the aldermanic seat at the council table in ward two yesterday. Ex-Alderman C. A. Risk, who was first elected to the council in 1913 and sat the following six years consecutively, was defeated last year, but finished third in the voting yesterday, replacing Alderman H. H. Ball, who ran this year for the board of control.

As was the case last year, Alderman Beamish, who was first elected to the council in 1915, headed the poll yesterday, receiving 112 votes less than last year and leading over John Winnett, who ran second last year also, by 209 votes, being 210 less than his majority in 1919, when he polled 2395 votes.

This is only Mr. Winnett's second year in the council. It was prophesied yesterday that he would head the poll, as he is very well known in the constituency and a prominent member of Ward Two Conservative Association.

Clara Brett Martin, the only woman candidate, on her first attempt for public office finished fourth, with Joseph Kent next. Last year Mr. Kent was at the bottom of the poll.

Hard Fought Contest.
J. N. Day and Henry Hine, two new candidates, finished seventh and eighth in a big field and a hard fought contest.

For 1918 the three candidates for the council were elected by acclamation.

Dr. John Noble, in whom the rate-payers have every confidence, was returned to the Board of Education with a large majority.

S. J. Brown, the soldier's candidate, is the other trustee returned and F. A. Magee and F. J. Carney finished third and fourth on their first attempt.

WARD SIX MEN ALL RE-ELECTED

Birdsall First, MacGregor Second, Sykes Third is New Order.

There was some heavy voting in ward six, the first three candidates polling 18,360, against 13,448 for the same trio last year. The three retiring aldermen were returned again, but in slightly different order. Ald. MacGregor, who topped the poll last year with 6112 votes, received 6217 yesterday, but that only put him in second place.

Alderman Birdsall, who ran second last year with 4323, jumped into first place yesterday with 6421, or 2091 more. Alderman Sykes is again third with 5678, against 4006 in January, 1919. There was a remarkable gap between third and fourth positions. A. L. Gadsby only getting 2214, as compared with Alderman Sykes' 5678. Mr. Gadsby, however, made a big advance from the 819 vote given him last year.

There was no change either in the board of education representatives, although the positions of Dr. John Hunter and J. S. Laxton are reversed. Dr. Hunter was on top in January, 1919, with 4300 votes, but he now drops to second place, his support having dropped to 3600. On the other hand, Trustee Laxton heads the poll with 4170, as compared with 3801 he was accorded when he ran second last year.

CONTROLLER-ELECT GIBBONS.

WARD THREE HAS WOMAN ALDERMAN

Mrs. Hamilton in Third Place—Burgess First, Johnston Second.

The polling in Ward 3 was much lighter than last year, but the division earned the distinction of being the first to return a woman to the city council. Mrs. Hamilton, who put up a splendid fight against her eight male opponents, ran into third place, and even at that she beat out ex-Alderman Mogridge by 236 votes. The latter was third at the last election, so that Mrs. Hamilton actually takes his place.

A. E. Burgess, one of the new candidates, heads the poll with 1,816 or 1,327 fewer than the 3,143 given for Alderman Ramsden, who retained premier honors last January, and who has won his way to the board of control. He thus, curiously enough, replaces Ald. Ramsden on the council so far as the voting is concerned. Ald. Johnston, who was second last year with 1,386 votes, occupies the same position again with 1,735. W. Stephenson, the Labor man, ran absolutely last.

Trustee Marmaduke Rawlinson again headed the poll for the board of education with 2,675 votes as against 1,902 last January. C. A. Brown, who was second last year with 1,550 votes, occupies the same position again with 2,669. S. Thompson, who ran third in January, 1919, with 1,525 votes, is there again this year with 1,675, but as only two trustees are required he is out of it again.

WILL BE TOTAL LOSS.
Cape Porpoise, Me., Jan. 1.—A rough sea tonight was pounding to pieces the three-masted schooner Charles H. Trickey and Mary E. Olys, which struck on the rocks near Goat Island early today when attempting to navigate the narrow harbor entrance in thick weather. Both will be a total loss.

CO-RELIGIONISTS ELECT J. SINGER

Ward Four Chooses Him, With Nesbitt and Cowan as Aldermen.

Ward four had six candidates for aldermanic honors, the foremost contestant being Joseph Singer, a gentleman who holds an outstanding place among the outstanding Hebrews of the city, and what his services to the vote polled, has a popular place in the community generally. From his standing in the legal profession and his astuteness in things pertaining to the city will be worthy of their support.

Arthur Russell Nesbitt, also a lawyer, has already a record in the past council, and his good work in the past speaks for what may be expected from him in the future.

The third successful candidate in ward four is John Arpen Cowan, whose services and various affiliations gives him many friends. Mr. Cowan, however, who is grateful to his supporters, expressed himself as both disappointed and pleased, the disappointment being due to the size of the vote polled, which he thought would have been larger, the disparity, in his opinion, being due to the anti-vaccination element, who having supported the medical health department on the vaccination issue.

WARD FIVE HONORS

Blackburn Leads Plewman by 26 Votes—Phinnemore Runs Third.

Clifford E. Blackburn proved to be the most popular aldermanic candidate in ward five yesterday, when he headed the polls with 3650 votes, which was just 26 votes ahead of his nearest contestant. Ald. Blackburn ran third in 1919 with a poll of 2853 votes. William R. Plewman, who ran second last year, was re-elected with a poll of 3624 as against 3184 in 1919. James Phinnemore ran third with 2510 votes. He ran fifth last year, polling only 1249 votes. George H. Gustar, the soldier candidate, was a close fourth with a poll of 2449 votes. Albert E. Hacker was fifth with 1596 votes. William B. Hunter sixth with 1253 votes and James I. Hubbard seventh with 1157 votes and John W. Huggins last with 1010.

Six aldermanic candidates entered the lists in 1919 for ward five and a total of 14,734 votes were polled. This year eight candidates ran and 17,249 votes were polled. The increase is largely due to the return from overseas of the soldiers.

There is no change in the members for the board of education for the ward. Caroline S. Brown headed the poll with 3514 votes and Joseph Bell was re-elected with 3295 votes. W. O. McTaggart, who ran unsuccessfully last year, was again defeated, although he polled 3197 votes. Andrew Glenn ran last with 967 votes.

MAYOR RE-ELECTED FOR SIXTH TIME

returned and by more substantial majorities than last year. Joseph Singer is the new alderman in Ward 4, replacing Alderman Nesbitt, who retired. He headed the poll. The two other aldermen—Nesbitt and Cowan, go back to service at the city hall. Owing to the retirement of Alderman Graham in Ward 5 there was a vacancy, and that was filled by the return of James Phinnemore, the two old members, Aldermen Plewman and Blackburn, going back to the city hall by the majority.

In Ward 7 the three old representatives, including Samuel Ryding, were returned by increased majorities. In Ward 8 two of the old aldermen are returned, and F. R. Maxwell replaces W. Williamson, who retired.

The various bylaws and questions submitted to the people were carried by large majorities in every ward in the city.

There are few changes to record on the board of education as the result of yesterday's poll. Rev. F. E. Powell replaces C. F. Steel in ward one, and S. J. Brown takes Fred Hamby's place in ward two. There are no changes in the board of education in ward three, but in ward seven F. B. Edmunds replaces R. R. Hopkins. The general poll was larger than usual, and all the successful candidates had increased majorities.

The mayor, in conversation with The World last night, said that whilst greatly pleased at his victory, he did not take it as a personal triumph, but as a battle won by the people for the people, and the upholding of public ownership. The mayor felt sure that the people's vote on the Hydro would gladden the heart of Sir Adam Beck on his sick bed. His worship pointed out that whilst he had been backed for the mayor's chair by the majority of the Toronto papers, he had no organization backing him, did not run a single committee-room, and had during the whole campaign been uttering a disparaging word about his opponents. He had trusted the people, and they had shown by their verdict that they trusted him to finish the public ownership work he had begun some years back. In conclusion, the mayor said that now the contest was over, he wished it to be known that he had nothing but the most friendly feelings towards his opponents.

Moncton, N.B., Jan. 1.—John T. Hawke, editor and proprietor of the Moncton Transcript, and one of the best known newspaper men in Canada, was taken suddenly ill yesterday afternoon and partial paralysis resulted. Tonight Mr. Hawke is reported to be slightly improved but his condition is precarious and it may be two or three days before there is any marked change. His physician does not anticipate immediate fatal results.

WARD SEVEN STAYS TRUE TO CHOICE

Ryding, Whetter and Maher Re-elected as 1920 Aldermen.

According to the results of yesterday's poll in the aldermanic race, the residents of Ward Seven are satisfied with the work of their representatives at the city hall. The three sitting aldermen were returned, namely, Aldermen Ryding, Whetter, and Maher. Alderman Ryding headed the poll with a substantial majority. There were five contestants for the place. Messrs. Bond and Dalton being the defeated candidates.

In the board of education election, there was no change. Last year's representatives, Mrs. Edith Lillian Groves and F. B. Edmunds were re-elected. In this contest five candidates entered the race. There was at no time the slightest doubt in the minds of the rate-payers that Mrs. Groves would not be re-elected and the results showed that a large vote was polled in her favor. She was endorsed by the Educational Reform Association.

In the earlier part of the day the polling booths were not rushed with voters eager to record their votes, but towards evening almost all polling stations had a line-up of residents patiently waiting their turn to enter the buildings.

Shortly after the election results were made known the old town rapidly resumed its normal condition and the people quietly returned to their homes.

WARD EIGHT ELECTS OLD FAVORITES

Baker and Miskelly Aldermen Again—New Face in F. R. Maxwell.

Aldermanic returns in ward eight place two of last year's representatives again in the council chamber. Ald. Frank M. Baker heading the poll, with Ald. William M. Miskelly third on the list and Francis Robert Maxwell, a new man, in second place. There were four contestants. The new alderman made an energetic campaign and should make a capable representative in the new ward if only by reason of the statement made to the electorate during the campaign that he should be elected on account of his "notorious vim and pep."

In the board of education returns two of last year's school trustees were re-elected. Mrs. Ada Mary Snelling, who was 79 years old, and Ald. William M. Miskelly. There were four candidates and Mrs. Courtice headed the poll by a large majority over all aspirants.

The election caused but small interest thruout the section. In the Beaches district quite a large number of women recorded their votes. Regret was expressed that Dr. Edwin C. Beer, candidate for the board of education, was not elected, although he fought a good fight and was the nominee of the Educational Reform Association.

With his hands and feet frozen, Fred Herkman, 8 Oxford street, was found lying on the street last night. He was admitted to the Western Hospital.

SAMUEL M'BRIDE QUITE SATISFIED

Not First Time Sporting Controller Has Suffered Defeat Cheerfully.

"It was a good fight so far as I am concerned, and I am quite satisfied," said Sam McBride, when he realized that he had lost the mayoralty race. "It is not the first time I have suffered defeat," he added in cheerful mood. "While I expected that the citizens might have given me a little more credit for my 13 years' service, still they are the people and people are supreme. I bow to their decision without any regrets."

"Never was there put up in Toronto, in my recollection, so bitter a campaign against any single man by any party but there's one thing that The Telegram cannot do, and that is to bring anything against my character, mine in the city council," Mr. McBride remarked. "I wish to thank all my friends and supporters."

TWO-YEAR TERMS SHOULD BE RULE

James Ballantyne Thinks Church's Election Emphasizes This.

James Ballantyne, defeated candidate for the mayoralty, expressed himself as by no means downhearted at the results of the election. "I desire to congratulate Mr. Ballantyne, and extend to both my opponents my sincere thanks for their courtesies to me during the campaign. In my judgment the election of Mayor Church is practically a mandate for a two-year term. Negotiations for the purchase of the Toronto Street Railway will be inaugurated this year, and as the people regard the presence of Mayor Church in the city hall essential this year, there will be weighty reasons for his retention in office to consummate the purchase."

"Realizing as I do that the bylaw relative to the commission of administration of the civic railway without remuneration has received a mandate from the qualified electors, it will not be easy for the city council to alter its form, and in a real sense the civic railway system of 1921 will not be a public ownership institution. However, some changes might be made by asking the electors to further express their opinions as to the administration of that railway."

POLICE OF HALIFAX ROUND UP GUNMEN

Halifax, N. S., Jan. 1.—The police there rounded up the supposed young gunmen who have been operating with success in Halifax for several weeks past. They are James Scott, aged 23 years, and James Corkum, aged 18. The police say they have confessed to robbing Robinson's clothing store of goods valued at $500, Johnson's jewelry store and of holding up Moses Newman, a Water street storekeeper, at the point of a revolver, and robbing the cash register of $200.

After the latter robbery they took the first train for Lunenburg, and were returning to the city today when the police boarded the train near here and arrested them. When searched, new revolvers, fully loaded, were found in their possession. Corkum belongs to Lunenburg and Scott hails from Scotland.
