

in appropriate terms, and the latter referred, in very pointed and highly eulogistic terms, to the immense amount of care and labor which were put forth by the office-bearers of the Association, in carrying out these Bonspiels from year to year, and to the most generous hospitality extended by the curlers of Toronto to their visiting friends.

The President then announced that at the approaching annual meeting a silver medal would be presented by Mr. John O. Heward, 1st. Vice-President, to the Orillia club, as a memorial of the honor they had won in being the last competing club in this important contest.

Three cheers were then given for the Queen, the Ontario Branch, and the Noble Game of Curling, and thus this interesting competition ended.
