

The total number in the Faculty has doubled in about five years, viz., 310 against 157 in 1884. The number of men has doubled in 14 years, The number in all the Faculties has doubled in about twenty-five years (576 in 1888 against 291 in 1863).

Non-matriculated students are termed "Occasional." They take fewer than three of the undergraduate classes.

The above report does not include students of other Faculties, a considerable number of whom attend the lectures of the Professors in Arts; nor does it include students in Arts in the Affiliated Colleges elsewhere in the Province.

A. JOHNSON.

A. Johnson