

The American Times Star

VOL. XIII. No. 93 ST. JOHN N. B., MONDAY, JANUARY 22, 1917 TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

ONE RAIDER SAID TO HAVE BEEN SUNK BY WARSHIP The British Cruiser Glasgow Reported to Have Sent Down One — The Ortego Safe at Pernambuco

Buenos Aires, Argentina, Jan. 22.—La Prensa publishes a despatch from Rio Janeiro, saying that, according to a cablegram received at Pernambuco, the British cruiser Glasgow has sunk a German commerce raider 130 miles off the coast of Pernambuco.

London, Jan. 22.—Lloyd's announces that the Japanese steamer Kishigata Maru III, 2,408 tons, has been sunk. The British steamer Baron Scampill, 1,607 tons, is also believed to have been destroyed at Pernambuco.

Washington, Jan. 22.—There probably will be no separate reply to Great Britain's supplementary note to President Wilson regarding peace. The reference in the British note to the necessity for some form of international sanction behind treaty agreements and international law, drew from German sources here an authoritative statement that Germany, under no consideration, would enter a league to preserve peace if she should emerge from the war much more powerful than she was when she entered it.

London, Jan. 22.—The British steamer Ortego, of the Pacific Line, concerning whose fate some anxiety was felt, has arrived safely at Pernambuco. The Ortego left Liverpool on December 28 and, after touching at Ireland, put in at Lisbon on January 17. From Portugal she sailed for Pernambuco by way of Dakar, French Senegal, leaving the latter port on January 15.

IN GRIP OF THE WORST STORM IN RECENT YEARS

Quebec Swept by a 60 Mile Blizzard TRAINS ARE TIED UP

Quebec, Jan. 22.—With the wind blowing at sixty miles an hour, according to the official observatory here, and snow falling in dense and uninterrupted drifts, Quebec is, since last night, in the grip of the worst storm encountered in the last fifteen or eighteen years, say old residents.

Meetings in Dorchester County Political Campaign Interfered With But One Was Held This Morning

St. Helene, Dorchester County, Que., Jan. 22.—A great snow storm during the night filled up the country roads and prevented the holding of many of the meetings for the candidates to keep their names before the voters.

Montreal, Jan. 22.—Railway traffic in this section has been seriously interrupted as the result of a heavy snowstorm which started last evening and is still continuing. Most of the freight trains, both in and out of the city, have been cancelled and passenger trains are all being held up.

Huns Twice Sent Back By The French

Fail in Two Attacks on Right Bank of the Meuse on the Verdun Front

Paris, Jan. 22.—Two attacks were made by the Germans last night on the Verdun front on the right bank of the Meuse. Today's official announcement says they were driven back each time by the French fire.

ALL EFFORT TO THE BUILDING OF CARGO SHIPS

London, Jan. 22.—The Crown Prince of Roumania and Premier Bradu have arrived at Petrograd for a conference with the Russian authorities on important questions in connection with the Roumanian situation, according to a Petrograd despatch to the Times.

ROME, Jan. 22.—Italy has not, like Germany, appointed a food dictator, because any autocratic official is repugnant to Italians in general and to Italians, especially, but a committee of four ministers and a general commission for everything connected with alienation may substantially correspond to the functions of a food dictator.

Wilson Asks To Go Before The Senate

Important Communication Relative to Foreign Affairs—First Incident of Its Kind Since Days of Washington

Washington, Jan. 22.—President Wilson sent word to Vice-President Marshall today that he wished to address the senate on the subject of foreign relations. Arrangements for his appearance were made at once. It is said no other president since Washington has made such an appearance.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE RELATIVE TO ROUMANIA

London, Jan. 22.—The Crown Prince of Roumania and Premier Bradu have arrived at Petrograd for a conference with the Russian authorities on important questions in connection with the Roumanian situation, according to a Petrograd despatch to the Times.

WASHINGTON NOW SEEMS TO GRIP IT

London, Jan. 22.—The supplementary and separate reports of Great Britain to President Wilson's peace note of Dec. 18 were generally regarded here as the opinion that the Allies had determined to have no peace that would not be permanent, and that the peace movement had any chance of success in the near future.

THOMAS GORMAN HAS PASSED AWAY

One of St. John's Best Citizens Dead

Thomas Gorman, one of the most highly respected and best known citizens of the city of St. John, died in the St. John Infirmary this morning, after an illness that was brief in its serious stages. Following upon the information received some months ago that his son, Bombardeur Thomas J. Gorman, was officially reported as killed in the war, he began to decline and in the latter part of the year he gradually sank although everything possible was done to prolong his life.

GOOD PIECE OF WORK

The efficiency of the local fire department and the good heartedness of its citizens were evidenced last night when it was learned that there was an outbreak of fire in the St. John County Hospital in East St. John.

TO JOIN FLYING CORPS

Active in Business and in Public Affairs, Prominent Liberal and Man of the Very Best Type of Citizenship

Unless She is Victorious She Will Not Enter League to Preserve Peace After War

SEE THEY MUST RESTORE BELGIUM

South American Diplomat Reports Conversation With Imperial Chancellor and the Foreign Minister—Found Them Conciliatory to Alsace

London, Jan. 22.—The Daily Express Amsterdam correspondent telegraphs the following: "A South American diplomat, who is leaving Berlin, had luncheon last night with the imperial chancellor and Herr Zimmerman, the foreign minister. The possibility of peace was discussed, and the neutral diplomat gives me the following account of what was said: 'I do not speak officially, of course, but I can say with almost certainty that the chancellor and Herr Zimmerman agree with the Kaiser and Hindenburg that they must renounce Belgium and possibly grant her financial compensation. They have discovered that neither the Allies nor even America will accept less.'

FRANCE TO USE SUGAR CARDS

VEILED CONFESSION IS MADE BY GERMANY

GERMANY'S SEIZE DUTCH MAIL

WASHINGTON NOW SEEMS TO GRIP IT

GERMANY WILL STAND NO INTERFERENCE FROM NEUTRALS

WEATHER REPORT

WAR SOUVENIRS

FREDERICTON SOLDIER IN MESOPOTAMIA DOWN WITH PNEUMONIA

TELEPHONE CALL REVEALS A MURDER

MOVING ADDRESS IN REPLY TO SPEECH FROM THRONE AT OTTAWA

LOURDES OF WALES DRY?

JAPANESE TROOPS TO EUROPE IF NEEDED TO WIN THE WAR

RUSSIAN CHIEF SEES COMPLETE VICTORY NEAR