

NATIONAL BOXING ASSN. HAVE ANNUAL

Status of Game in Some States Said to Be Precarious

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 19—Any attempt to tamper with or improve the laws governing boxing in the several states might result in the repeal of some of the laws that now permit this sport, the National Boxing Association was told by several commissioners attending the annual convention which closed today...

Disagrees On Olympics

"Scoop" Ross, in the Amber News, has the following to say about the present amateur situation:

"The St. John Telegraph-Journal, in a lengthy editorial says that Olympic sports are of the utmost importance to the Maritime Provinces—far more so than the reinstatement of independent athletes. I cannot agree with the Telegraph-Journal for the simple reason that there are over two score of men who are now outlawed and who at the same time should be entitled to justice. They have remained outside of the amateur pale for years, although their offences could not be considered as flagrant...

would serve only to bring boxing to the legislative forefront, arousing strong opponents of the sport to renewed opposition, possibly resulting in the overthrow of laws now regulating it.

Allen A. Brahe, a Cincinnati attorney, was elected president of the association, succeeding Lathrop Cogswell, of Baltimore, who was elected secretary-treasurer.

DILLON IS WINNER.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Oct. 20—Harry Dillon, Winnipeg, scored a technical knockout over Russell Dockstader, of Port Hancoy, B. C., here last night, when Dockstader left the ring in the ninth round, claiming an injury to his right eye.

MACK GIVES $50,000 AND THREE PLAYERS

Price Paid For Joe Boley by Athletics—$150,000 Had Been Refused

NEW YORK, Oct. 20—The terms of the trade for Joe Boley, who is shifting from the Baltimore Orioles in the International to Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics, are out. The astute leader will give $50,000 and three players, as yet unnamed, for the player Jack Dunn would not sell five years ago to the Yanks, the Giants or Cincinnati Reds for a price said to have been $150,000.

THOSE tennis matches between Suzanne and Mary K. Browne ought to go over real well. . . . We can recall when the public used to fall for Ted Lewis and Jack Britton every other night.
