Irish Republican Chief Offers To Discuss Peace

De Valera Announces that Fighting Will Stop No Later Than Monday—Demands Irish Sovereignty and Supremacy of People.

Dublin, April 27—A suspension of hostilities by the Irish Republicans against the forces of the Free State government, and an offer to negotiate peace with the Free State on certain conditions were proclaimed tonight by Eamonn De Valera, the Republican leader, and his chief of staff, E. F. the following:

"First—That the sovereign rights of leader, and his chief of staff, E. F. Aitken.

Chief of Staff Aitken, in his order for a cessation of offensive operations, tells the Republican troops to remain on the defensive and protect themselves and their munitions. This is taken as implying that there is to be no yielding on the part of the Republicand for the surrender of all arms. Following is the text of the order:

"To all commands and independent brigades:

"Suspension of offensive in order to give effect to the decision of the government and army council embodied in the attached proclamation. You will arrange a suspension of all offensive operations in your area as from noon Monday, April 80.

"You will insure that whilst remain-(Continued on page 2, column 4.) ing on the defensive all units take adequate measures to protect themselves and their munitions."

The proclamation signed by De Valera's Terms.

Chief of Staff Aitken, in his order the following:

"First—That the sovereign rights of the following:

"Second—That all legitimate Governmental authority in Ireland, legis—trived exclusively from the people of Ireland.

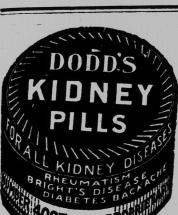

"Third—That the ultimate court of appeal for deciding disputed questions of national expediency and policies is the people of Ireland, that the judgment is by a majority vote of the adult citizenry and the decision to be submitted to and resistance by violence excluded, not because the decision is necessarily right or just or permanent, but because acceptance of this rule makes for peace, order and unity in national action and is a democratic alternative to arbitrament by force.

"Adequate opportunities and facilities, must, of course, be afforded for full and proper presentation to the court of all facts and issues involved; and it must be understood that Article One and Article Two are fundamental and non-judicable.
