Limitations of Armaments.

The Hippopotamus—Goodness, do you suppose I shall have to make myself thin skinned?

brought the grand total to $2,212.14. A collection was taken at the meeting and realized more than $10 and expenses were reported at $15.92. The net proceeds amounted to $2,204 and the treasurer was authorized to forward this sum to the directors of the Children's Aid. Special mention was made of the printers who took no payment for tags and for the coverings for the books.

With Mrs. W. S. Allison as convener in Rothesay, $50.65 had been realized and the helpers in that district had been Miss Helen Allison, Miss Florence Puddington, Miss K. Lambert, and Miss K. Peters. Mrs. Frederick Roach was the convener, and Remford. Votes of thanks were tendered all conveners, all who helped on tag day, the clergy, the editors of the press papers, those who had loaned automobiles and all others who had aided.
