Pleasant Point, 9; St. George, 5.
At St. George yesterday the baseball season was officially opened with a game between Pleasant Point and St. George in which the visiting team got away with the long end of a 9 to 5 score.

Dana and Sopi were the battery for Pleasant Point while the home team battery were Leavitt and Spear.

St. Rose's Win Opening Game.
The Y. M. C. I. Intermediate House League opened yesterday morning on St. Peter's park when St. Rose's and St. Peter's teams met, the former winning by a score of 12 to 11. The league was officially opened by Charles E. Dalton, who tossed the first ball across the plate.

The game was an exciting one and the result was in doubt until the third man was retired in the ninth inning. While both teams had several errors they also made many snappy plays, which won well merited applause. With a little more practice these teams will undoubtedly put up a good brand of ball.

York County League.
The York County Independent Baseball League opened yesterday morning in Devon when Fredericton defeated Devon 16 to 10 in nine innings of poor ball. In the afternoon Fredericton defeated Marysville 7 to 4.

ATHLETIC.
At St. Stephen yesterday the Rotary Club and the G. W. V. A. held a series of athletic events. More than 1,500 spectators were present. The programme included races for men, boys and girls; field events and a baseball game between St. Stephen and Millville. This game went thirteen innings and resulted in a victory for St. Stephen by the score of 6 to 5. In the evening a band Square Garden and dance closed the celebration.

at Henley, has been averted by the decision of the Australians to abandon the idea of competing. A Rector dispatch from Adelaide, however, says the Australians intend to challenge rowing associations in England and America to an eight oar race to decide the championship of the world.

The Australian challenge could not be accepted by the English universities because the rules and traditions of the Henley competition bars artizan crews.

Power Boat Club.
The opening of the season at the St. John Power Club took place yesterday. Commodore J. H. Barton and about twenty-five boats of the fleet cruised up as far as Westfield wharf yesterday afternoon and returned early last evening. A dance under the direction of William Edgett and John Kiernan was held in the clubhouse on the return of the boats.

At Millville.
Commodore Walter J. Logan, of the Royal Kennebec Yacht Club, officially opened the season yesterday morning at the clubhouse in Millville. No cruise was held yesterday as several of the boats are not yet in final shape for the summer's activities, due largely to the backwardness of the spring season. However, keen interest in yachting and especially in dinghy racing is expected to develop through the summer. The financial condition of the club is good and the membership is large. The first of the week-end summer cruises will start on Saturday afternoon.

CRICKET.
St. John Team Wins.
The St. John Cricket Club eleven defeated the Robtess Collegiate School eleven 128 to 61 at Robtess yesterday afternoon. G. Hudson was high man for Robtess. The city team will play a team from the R. M. S. P. C. H. on Saturday afternoon at the Barrack Green.

Mike Quinn Wins.
Sydney, N. S., May 24.—Mike Quinn, of Sydney Mines, won a technical knockout over Charlie Guthrie in a scheduled ten round bout at Gloucester tonight. The referee stopped the fight after Guthrie had been felled five times in the third round.

Contest a Draw.
Toronto, May 24.—Tommy Noble English featherweight champion, and Jimmy Goodrich, of Buffalo, fought ten rounds to a draw in a main bout affair here tonight.

Mitchell, 189 pounds, of Syracuse, earned a close decision over Nate Lewis, 155 pounds, of Buffalo, in ten rounds, and Eddie Pincho, the clever Charolier hantam, had the better of a ten-round battle with Curley Wilshaw, Toronto.

Greb Wins Championships.
New York, May 24.—Herry Greb, of Pittsburgh, who fought successfully in middleweight, light heavyweight and heavyweights last night won the light heavyweight championship title of America, defeating Gene Tunney of New York in fifteen rounds in Madison Square Garden. Greb received the judges' decision.

Greb, on the offensive throughout the greater part of the contest, fought his customary windmill fashion, and prevented Tunney from using his most effective attack. In the early rounds of the fight Greb landed several hard punches on Tunney's eyes and on his nose. Tunney's punches that did land were hard and shook Greb, but failed to stop him in the third round.

Round One—Greb took the aggressive and both men landed sharp lefts to the jaw. Greb brought blood from Tunney's nose. The Pittsburgher seemed faster than ever. They exchanged a series of hard lefts and rights to body and head. Greb was covered with blood. Tunney's body blows were heavy. Tunney rushed Greb to the ropes with body punches at the bell.

Round Two—Greb started another assault to the head and brought blood from Gene's nose again. Tunney's body blows were worrying the Pittsburgher. Tunney now took the aggressive and landed a series of hard lefts to the stomach.

Round Three—Most of the mixing was at close quarters, and Tunney's punches seemed the harder. Tunney was now having the better of the exchange. Greb was not so fast as when he started and Tunney's fighting was steady and effective.

Round Four—Tunney shook the Pittsburgher with two left hooks to the jaw. Tunney hurt Greb with a hard left to the stomach. They were fighting furiously at the bell and the referee had to separate them.

Round Five—They exchanged hard punches to the head and body. Greb was holding a great deal and was cautioned by the referee. He found Tunney more than a willing mixer. Tunney sent Greb to the ropes with hard rights and lefts to head and body.

Round Six—Tunney was bleeding from a cut over his left eye, but kept up his aggressive tactics. Tunney shook Harry with lefts to the jaw. Greb continued swinging his arms and clinching, but landed few effective punches.

Round Seven—The referee warned Greb against holding in the breaks. The fighting in this round was very slow. Greb swung his arms continuously, but did not land and was sent to the ropes by a left to the stomach as the round closed.

Round Eight—Greb started a mixup in a hand corner and Tunney responded with a salvo of body punches. Greb landed sharply to the head several times. Greb was very active in this round and landed his most solid blows.

Round Nine—Both of Tunney's eyes were bleeding now. The blood between them considerably. Greb kept on top of Tunney and sent light blows to his head. Tunney returned with lefts to the stomach. They were slugging in the centre of the ring at the bell.

Round Ten—They took turns in pushing each other to the ropes. Greb always kept close to Tunney and seemed content to cut Tunney sharply with rights and lefts to the eyes.

Round Eleven—Greb kept Tunney's arms tied up and he was unable to play for the body, while Greb jumped and danced and sent sharp left hooks to the jaw. The round was slow.

Round Twelve—Tunney sent a hard left to the stomach and Greb returned three rapid swings to the jaw. Tunney shook the Pittsburgher with a left to the stomach. Tunney's work in this round seemed better than that of the opponent. His punches to the body were solid.

Round Thirteen—They mixed furiously in this round and although Greb was the aggressor, his blows were not as hard as those of Tunney. The Pittsburgher rocked Tunney's head with a right swing.

Round Fourteen—Greb had the body of a fast exchange to head and body. Most of the fighting in this round was at close quarters.

Round Fifteen—Greb, swinging wildly, caught Tunney with a left to the jaw. A right to the jaw sent Tunney to the ropes. They were in a mix-up at the bell.

ROD AND GUN.
A number of notable features are contained in the June number of Rod and Gun in Canada. George L. Catton, a Canadian writer of the highest reputation, contributes "Playbacks," a short story masterpiece. There is an article entitled "Shooting Migrations Along N. C.," by that famous naturalist, Bonny-castle Dale, while Robert Page Lincoln tells of "Raccoon Casts," in addition to this useful Fishing Notes department.

The Gun and Ammunition department in this issue is perhaps the biggest feature. It is an unusually liberal one, containing a wealth of material which will be of interest to the sportsman. The department resumes with this issue, under the editorship of Frank H. Walker, the Gun and Ammunition department.

A Bryan Williams contributes his usual well-balanced, attractive magazine, which will be found particularly interesting to the Gun and Ammunition department.

Red and Gun in Canada is published monthly by W. W. Taylor, Ontario, by W. J. Taylor, Limited.

BAPTISTS FOR CURBING MOVIES
More Strict Censorship is Demanded in Report to Southern Body.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 23.—Denunciation of the modern dance and race track gambling and demand for strict censorship of moving pictures, enforcement of the prohibition laws and observance of Sunday marked the report submitted to the Southern Baptist convention by its social service commission.

The commission expressed hope that the report would be the basis of a thorough clean-up in the whole picture business. Withdrawal of "Pat" Arbuckle pictures was approved, and the commission declared "much more is needed."

"We hope Mr. Hayes and the producers will keep up the work," continued the report. "Regardless of what they do, we must demand the enactment of laws for strict censorship in each state. The morals of our young people must not continue to be corrupted by the public exhibition of the detestable and indecent displays of indecency and lust."

The commission reported some improvement in what it termed the "dance evil," but declared in this connection that "we must not slacken our efforts."

RUSSIAN ACTORS TO PAY VISIT TO AMERICA.
Moscow, April 28.—(Associated Press by mail)—The Moscow Art Theatre, which will send a company of players to America late this summer, is considered in Russia to produce the highest form of dramatic art.

It is a government subsidized institution and maintains studios where plays are rehearsed and actors trained before they are permitted to appear at the main theatres. In some instances, plays have been rehearsed as many as 200 times and more than a year spent in detailed scenic preparation before the first performance at the main theatre.

If present plans are materialized, the Russian actors would leave Moscow early in August. In America, they would present their pieces in the Russian language.

Tour Is Not Assured.
New York, May 25.—Cable reports from Paris to the effect that games were being arranged there and in England for the Washington Americans and other the Yankees or Giants on a world tour next fall were taken lightly by officials of both clubs. It was said that there were no definite plans for such a tour of Germany, France, England and other countries after the present season closed, but that no decision would be reached for some time. The affair rests entirely on the results of the pennant races and on other future developments, according to the local baseball heads.
