The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

How long, I wonder, will we go on preparing our daughters, whom we devoutly hope will be happy wives, for everything else but widowhood?

Here is a genuine human document on that branch of folly which is called "the education of a daughter."

"My dear Miss Cameron: you said you wished suggestions. May I offer one? My suggestion is to urge mothers to prepare their daughters for widowhood, by teaching them carefully the details of housework and of managing a home."

"I speak from experience myself. My mother said (as she is now a widow) that you will have a much easier time of it if you have a man to do the housework."

"I know how to manage a household, and I know how to manage a man. I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father."

"I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father. I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father."

"I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father. I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father."

"I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father. I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father."

"I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father. I know how to manage a man who is a good husband and a good father."

MICHIGAN'S GOVERNOR AIDS CAUSE OF SUFFRAGISTS.

Declaring that he favors women suffrage and predicting that women will be voting in every State in the Union in ten years, Governor Osborn gave the suffragists of the State of Michigan more encouragement than they have received from a State official in many years.

As a result of the Governor's statement telegrams from women are pouring into the Executive's office congratulating him.

PROOF FOR WOMEN WHO STILL SUFFER

That They Can Find Relief In Dodd's Kidney Pills

Mrs. Lois McKay Suffered From Pains in the Back, Side and in the Region of the Heart—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her

Tiverton, Digby Co., N. S., Nov. 14—Every day seems to bring a message of cheer for the weak and ailing women of Canada. Today's message comes from Mrs. Lois McKay, a well-known resident of this place. She writes: "I have found relief in Dodd's Kidney Pills."

"Before I used Dodd's Kidney Pills," Mrs. McKay states, "I suffered with a bad pain in my low back, and pains in my bowels, and sharp, cutting pains around the heart."

"I was always tired. Sometimes when I sat down I could hardly get up out of the chair. But thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills, my pain is all gone and my back is well. I have proven for myself that Dodd's Kidney Pills are good. Female troubles are nearly always caused by diseased kidneys, and the kidneys show how one is dependent on the other. That's why weak women find new life in Dodd's Kidney Pills. They always cure diseased kidneys."

It was in the night of April 23, 1908, when war against Austria had just been declared, that Rouget de Lisle, then a captain in the Strasbourg Garrison, wrote "The Marseillaise" which he entitled "War Song of the Army of the Rhine."

It was sung by Mireux, the deputy of Montpellier, who had accompanied the local volunteers at a banquet given at Marseilles by volunteers belonging to that town, and so it was called "The Marseillaise," whereas the name "Strasbourg Song" would have been more correct. The first verse, which is the best known, is the first, was composed by the poet L. Dubois for the civic festival of Oct. 14, 1792.
