THE WELL-DRESSED MAN inspires confidence. To be well-dressed is not to be over-dressed, but to be attired in suitable clothing.

This is where we specialize. We are practical tailormen, who have given years of study to the question of men's clothes. That is why our business is so large to-day. We make friends and customers; this is not very difficult, but we do even more—we keep them.

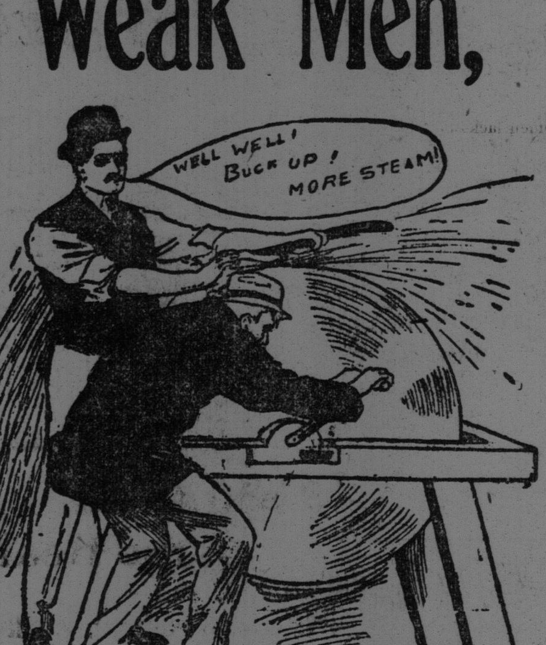
Weak Men, Wake Up!



Why Do You Wait?

Are you satisfied to turn the grindstone for the other fellow all your life? Are you content to be a plodder all your days? There's nothing in it, and you know it. Then why not brace up and be a man. Electricity as I apply it is working wonders in the worlds. I am making hustling, energetic men out of wrecks every day. In every walk of life you'll find these men—men whom I have saved from lives of wretchedness and despair—men who are making their mark in the world—men who are shouting the praises of my Dr. McLaughlin Belt—men who will tell you that they began the use of my great Electric Appliance—theonly absolutely safe and sure remedy for a weak man—a broken down man.

My remedy is an honest remedy, a logical remedy, a time-triedremedy. You have seen my advertisements for over twenty years, if you have been on earth that long, and if you'll write to or consult some of the men and women who have used my appliance or are using it, they'll tell you that it does all that I claim for it and even more. Then why do you wait? What's the use in bewailing your fate? You know you are not the man you ought to be. I can help you with Electricity as applied according to my method more than all the Doctors and Drugs in Christendom. If it's fresh strength and energy you want, VIM and VIGOR, that's what I can give you, and you'll be a long time getting anything like that out of drugs.

If your stomach don't work; refuses to digest your food; if your Bowels don't move regularly; if your Kidneys are weak; if your Liver is sluggish; if your Blood Circulation is poor and your body is full of Uric Acid or other impurities; if your powers of Manhood are weakening; if your body is full of pains and aches; if you suffer from Headaches, Debilitating Losses, Urinal Disorders, Irritability, Despondency, Sleeplessness, or any other sign of Nervous or Physical Breakdown, stop and THINK! Don't, don't depend upon Drugs to build you up; they'll never do it. Don't you know that all such symptoms are crying out the fact as loudly as they can that the nerve cells of your body are robbed of their powers—their vitality? Don't you know that the basis of nerve-power is Electricity? Don't you know that Electricity is Life? If you don't, then you should get my book and read it. It will teach you facts you ought to know.

Let me treat your case in my own way. Let me apply a steady current of Galvanic Electricity to your weakened system with my Dr. McLaughlin Electric Belt. Wear this appliance, night after night for a few weeks and it will drive out all those pains and aches; it will restore energy and equilibrium to your nervous system; it will fill your body with fresh strength and energy; it will give you back the powers of Manhood, and make you a Man among Men. Again I place before you more PROOFS:

Dear Sir,—I got one of your Belts some time ago for a sore back, which was very painful, and prevented me from stooping so at times I could hardly tie my shoes. Your Belt strengthened my back and took the pain and soreness away entirely. I would not take $100 for it, and if I could not get another, I would not part with it at any price. I can recommend your Belt as a complete cure to all afflicted with this trouble.

Yours very truly,
W. McNEILL,
Colborne, Ont.

Dear Sir,—I wish to say that your Belt has given me good satisfaction. I might say further that I think mine was a hard case to help, being troubled with sick head ache and very bad pains in my head and not able to sleep more than half the night. I am pleased to say that after wearing your Belt for awhile, I slept better and my sick spells grew longer between. The current generated by the battery was fine and soothing, and gave me good satisfaction in a great many ways. I remain, as ever,

A. S. MACE, J. P.,
Newton, Kings Co., N. B.

Pick out the men who have worn my Belt. See them, with head erect, chest expanded, the glow of health in their cheeks, courage in their hearts, and a clasp of the hand that tells you: "I am a man."

To those who are tired of paying without results, and to those who doubt if anything will help them, I make this offer: If you will secure me you can

PAY WHEN YOU ARE CURED

I will let you have my Belt without paying me one cent in advance.

Call at my office this very day if you can, if you can't, then fill out this Coupon, send me your address and I'll mail you, closely sealed my FREE 80-PAGE BOOK, elegantly illustrated. I have a book for Women, too. DON'T WAIT—DO IT NOW!

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY; HOME AND ABROAD

Wrestling

Ottawa, Dec. 8—The Tremblay-Sandow bout at the Grand Opera House tonight came to an abrupt conclusion by an unfortunate accident to Sandow. After the couple had wrestled about thirty minutes, Tremblay secured a hammerlock on the Chicago man and Sandow in breaking loose, tumbled and fell over the footlights into the orchestra, landing on his head and shoulders after a six foot fall. He was picked up unconscious and carried into the dressing room.

It was not thought that he was seriously hurt and after a short delay he returned and announced that he would finish. He was visibly dazed, however, and the men had only been on the mat a minute when Tremblay got a half Nelson that floored Sandow.

Dr. Webster and Dr. Hanna then examined the injured man and announced that he could not possibly continue. Consequently the bout was given to Tremblay, but the lightweight champion was reluctant to accept the decision, announcing that he would return and wrestle Sandow at a later date.

The Turf

New York, Dec. 8—George Spears, who was expelled from the turf for alleged irregularities in connection with the famous Major Delmar-Lou Dillon match race scandal of 1906, has been denied rein-statement by the Board of Review of the National Trotting Horse Association. This is the case which owners C. K. G. Billings and E. E. Smathers finally took to the civil courts to settle ownership of the gold cup prize. Spears trained Lou Dillon for Smathers. Each year since his expulsion he has asked for reconsideration.

The number of cases of "ringing" occupying attention made one wonder how many harness races might be considered "on the level." Charles Whitby was expelled for one offense, and Harvey Whitby suspended for another. The former was found guilty of changing the name of a 2.27 gelding and entering him in a 2.40 event.

Mrs. Agnes Bonner, of London, Ohio, was also expelled on a similar charge along with three men, and the horse, Gus B., which was sent to the races as Brownie B.

The Ring

Wolgast Has An 'At Home.'

Los Angeles, Dec. 8—Ad Wolgast, lightweight champion of the world, stricken with appendicitis, has so far recovered from the effects of the operation that he is now "at home" to the newspaper men. W. W. Naughton and H. M. Walker were the first sport writers to talk with the champion.

"I'm sick of being sick," were Wolgast's first words. "I want to get out as soon as I can."

Wolgast looks anything but the invalid. His skin is brown and healthy looking and his eyes have their old-time sparkle. He has passed through the serious stage of his illness, and it is now but a question of time when he will be completely recovered.

Baseball

Chance to Retire?

Los Angeles, Dec. 8—Frank Chance, manager of the Chicago Cubs, has no inclination to lead the team, and, judging from words he has dropped here this winter, will resign the managership at the expiration of his present contract, at the end of next season. Chance owns a valuable fruit ranch near Los Angeles, and he would rather oversee it than engage in a hot baseball fight.

In a fanning bee with Jim Jeffries, Frank Dillon and a number of sport writers, Chance said:

"Chicago is all right, but really I would not shed any tears if I never saw it again. This is the only country for a man to live in. My contract with the Cubs runs another year, and I am planning to play first base next season. But beyond that, I am not giving baseball much thought."

And why should Chance bother his brain about baseball, beyond the point of fulfilling his contract with the Cubs? He has twenty-one acres of oranges almost in full bearing, and one in that condition of worldly well being is a lot more independent than the Czar of Russia.

Livingstone for Naps.

Philadelphia, Dec. 8—Manager Connie Mack of the Philadelphia American League Baseball Club, announces the sale of Catcher Livingstone to the Cleveland club of the same league, and of "Topsy" Hartsel, outfielder, to the Toledo club of the American Association.

Bowling

A Few Dont's for Bowlers.

Don't try to learn in a day.
Don't use too much speed at first.
Don't grip the ball too tight.
Don't loft the ball.
Don't play the side ball until you have mastered the centre delivery.
Don't swing the ball more than once before delivering it.
Don't start with a jump; walk one and run two steps.
Don't deliver the ball with the right foot in front.
Don't step on or over the foul line.
Don't think you can change the course of the ball after it has left your hand.
Don't expect a strike because you hit the head pin.
Don't throw away a spare because you think you were entitled to a strike.
Don't think the other fellow has all the luck; plug away; things will change.
Don't use any unnecessary motions.
Don't exert yourself. A slow, accurate ball is better than a swift, wild one.
Don't tell your wife you carried off all the honors—she may see the papers.

THE MULE AND THE MAN.

The mule—he is a gentle beast,
And so is man.
He's satisfied to be the least;
And so is man.
Like man, he may be taught some tricks;
He does his work from 8 to 6;
The mule—when he gets mad, he kicks;
And so does man.

The mule—he has his faults, 'tis true;
And so has man.
He does some things he should not do;
And so does man.
Like man, he doesn't yearn for style,
But wants contentment all the while,
The mule—he has a lovely smile;
And so has man.

The mule is sometimes kind and good;
And so is man.
He eats all kinds of breakfast food;
And so does man.
Like man, he balks at gaudy dress
And all outlandish foolishness;
The mule's accused of mulishness;
And so is man.
—Missouri Ruralist.

WEE AGNES.

Agnes was a little tot of five, with curly flaxen hair, china-like complexion—and a will of her own. She had been ill advised, not to say deliberately naughty, at the dinner table, and mamma had dismissed her to her bedroom, to remain in durance vile till she should express due contrition for her behavior. Agnes cheerfully obeyed the parental order, and showed no spirit of repentance at the end of the first quarter of an hour. When thirty minutes had elapsed mamma called from an adjoining room—"Agnes, dearie, aren't you sorry?" There was no reply from the darkness beyond. Ten minutes later the question was repeated. Back came the reply, in the patient dignity and childish treble of five summers —"Mamma, please don't ask me any more. I'll come and let you know when I'm sorry."

FLOORED THE BARRISTER

The rising young barrister gazed at the poor little agricultural laborer in the box. He was hardly worthy of his forensic ability.

"Have you been married?" he asked.

The witness stammered, and said he had been—once.

"And whom did you marry?"

"A w-w-woman, sir."

The barrister winked at his confreres, and murmured something about "the village fool." He turned again to the witness.

"Come, come, my good man. Of course it was a woman. Did you ever hear of anybody marrying a man?"

"Yes, sir; p-p-please, my sister did," was the reply of the village fool, and he was allowed to stand down.

Phoenicia, N. Y., claims the distinction of being the home of the four smallest citizens of the United States. They are Alexander Paul Richard Ebert, 32 years old, height three feet six inches, weight fifty-five pounds; Otto Frederick Schemmel, twenty-nine, height three feet one inch, weight forty-four pounds; Otto Thorne, thirty-two, height three feet two inches, weight forty-five pounds, and Adolph Karl Meyer Schemmel, thirty six, height three feet one inch, weight forty-four pounds.

George Lemberg and Miss Helen Arnold were married last week at Waco, Tex., on the roof of the Acme Building, twenty-two stories high and the highest building in the state. Lemberg, who is a farmer, twenty-six years old, said he desired to have the ceremony performed as high as possible, for he had always lived a staid life and wanted to do something romantic when he had the chance.
