QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON FORESTRY

(By the Canadian Forestry Association.)
The Mother Country's purchases.
Q. Does Canada supply the United Kingdom with any large part of her timber requirements?
A. Only with about ten per cent. 85 per cent. of her forest needs from outside the Empire. This is due chiefly to the great difference in freight rates as between Canada and the Scandinavian countries.

What is a 'limit'?
Q. What is the strict meaning of a 'timber limit'?
A. The provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, and British Columbia own and administer their forest resources. Leases of timber cutting rights are made to various commercial companies, renewable one year, and the area thus leased is termed a 'limit' or 'berth'. The provinces mentioned retain ownership of practically all their forest lands, except New Brunswick which has alienated about one third.

Prices 75 years ago.
Q. What were lumber prices in Canada about 1850?
A. White pine, the chief construction timber, was about $13 a thousand feet, as against five or six times that at the present day. It is the accepted opinion that Canada and the United States will never again see an era of 'cheap lumber' as the toll of forest fires, get mostly by human recklessness, has reduced the stands that raw material must remain very high in market value. Unlike wheat or chickens, new crops of timber cannot be grown in a year but must await at least a century. The long-time element is the most serious part of settling forest fires.

Led by the St. John Pauliers Band, the Woodstock Cadet Corps marched to Trinity church yesterday morning and there attended service in a body. They were joined by members of the St. Andrew's, Winter street, King Edward and King George corps. The city and Woodstock coffets left on the cadet camp there this week. Captain D. V. Pain was in charge of the Woodstock boys.

Gordon Saunders, a small boy living in White street, had a narrow escape from serious injury about 5.30 yesterday afternoon. He was riding on a bicycle when the fender of an automobile struck his wheel, throwing him to the ground. He received a bad shaking up and in addition a muscle in his neck was strained. He received treatment at the General Public Hospital.

The 1924 convention of the G. W. V. A. will be held in Nova Scotia according to a decision at the concluding session of the Dominion convention in Vancouver on Saturday.

What You Owe to Advertisers

You owe to advertisers in daily newspapers almost everything that has made living more comfortable and healthy.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers of foodstuffs gave you clean foods, just weights and fixed prices for the things you buy to eat.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers gave you better houses, modern bathrooms, hardwood floors, electric lights, gas and electric ranges.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers gave you better clothes to wear by educating the public to the value of good clothes and their economy.

Daily Newspaper Advertisers gave you housework easier by giving you quick cleaning fluids, furniture polishes, floor machines, vacuum cleaners, carpet sweepers, aluminum cooking utensils, clothes dryers, sewing machines, gas and electric irons.

Daily Newspaper Advertising made it possible for you to retain the beauty nature endowed you with by suggesting cosmetics, toilet preparations, shaving creams, safety razors, etc.

The pioneers in all these things were the firms who made them and advertised them.

They led the way.

It is for this reason that you should always buy advertised goods.

These goods have raised your standard of comfort and living; and the manufacturers of them command admiration for their courage and foresight.
