

The Sunday School is still under the Superintendency of Miss Elliot and her faithful band of helpers. The Ven. Arch Deacon Boddy continues his weekly Bible talks to the older girls; to all of these kind friends we are very grateful. We would also acknowledge the kindness of Mrs. Gartshaw, for her attention to the children while at the Eglinton Home, and those kind neighbors and friends at Eglinton, who remembered with deeds of love the children during their holidays.

During the year we have to record the death of one of our Honorary Members, Mrs. Alcorn. The Directorate desire to express their appreciation of her services in the early history of the Home, and for the interest she continued to take in its welfare, even when removed from active duty.

Our esteemed Matron, Mrs. Bright, is still the valued Head of the Home, and with her assistants, makes it one of the model Institutions of the city.

We who are now permitted to take part in this work of sheltering and training young girls, providing homes for them, desire humbly to go forward in the Spirit of the Master. The gratitude and appreciation felt by those thus provided for, and the pleasure which they have brought into some of the homes where they have been placed, repay and encourage us to continue our labors, knowing that with God's blessing, Longfellow's words will be verified :

"The wrong shall fail,
The right prevail,
With Peace on earth, good-will to men."

"Has pity lost her old-time loving touch?
Does charity but seek herself to please?
Nay, God be praised, kind hearts ever be
For whom Christ's words are spoken—Inasmuch
As ye have done it unto one of them,
Ye have most truly done it on Me."
