LATE W. A. M'DONALD.

Resident of West Superior, Wis.

William A. McDonald, proprietor of the Hotel Northern, died Wednesday morning from the effects of an operation for appendictits, from which he has been suffering for the past three years. He was one of the best known and most popular men of this city. He came to West Superior—them in its infancy—about II years ago and engaged in the grocery business. He served one year as supervisor on the county board. Afterward he took charge of the Northern and has managed it personally until a few weeks ago, when he went to St. Mary's hospital to be treated. He was unmarried, but has two brothers living in this city. His parents live at Chatham, Ont.

The funeral services were conducted under the direction of Heiser McHugh, chaplain of the Elks, Thursday afternoon in the lodge rooms of the order at the Terminal block. After the services the body was taken to the Omaha depot and placed on the 5.30 train for Chatham. The pall-bearers were: J. E. McGrath, Joseph Neil, N. C. Drew, C. J. Fridley, George Hislop and William Kennedy. The remains were accompanied to Canada by the brother of the deceased, George McDonald, and George Hislop.

At St. Andrew's church last evening, the musical program was splendidly rendered. A duet, by Lindeay, was beautifully sung by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall, The anthem, "Mercy Calla," by the full choir was well rendered, the solo and duet being charmingly sung by Mrs. Marshall, Miss J. Martin and Miss Mcdillan. The rich sonorous voice of Mrs. Marshall was, as usual, particularly admired.

In Buffalo, William Feldmann, proprietor of the bazoar at 126 Gratiot avenue, Detroit, was arrested for stealing a bisyele; When searched at the station $12.880 in bills was found distributed through his pockets. He admitted taking the heyele, but said sunshody had taken his, which was a batter one, He supposed the thief had made an exchange, and he took away the one self. (

BEGGARLY SCORING

Philadelphia Englishmen Win.

Philadelphia Sept. 19.—The English cricket team won their first match in this country Saturday, defeating the gentlemen of Philadelphia 154 to 153 with eight wickets to spare. When the first day's play closed Friday afternoon the Philadelphians had scored 94 runs in their first inning, and the visitors had made 79 runs for the loss of eight wickets. Saturday the remaining two wickets went down for a total of 84 runs. The Philadelphians were jubilant at the prospects, and they went in for their second inning confident of their ability to win. They took an auful slump in their batting, however, being retired for a beggarly total of 39 runs. The batting was the poorest that has ever been seen here in interantional matches, and the large crowd of admirers of the game, who had gathered around the ropes, were greatly disappointed at the showing made by their representatives. Needing 70 to win, the Englishmen went in for their second imning Saturday afternoon, and scored that number for the loss of two wickets.
