A WEEKLY NEWS LETTER

WORKERS' EDUCATION

At the February meeting of the Executive Counmerican Federation of Labor a resolution providing for the eq serative service of the Workers Education Bureau in conjunc on with the Educational Committee of the A.F. of L. was prented and minimously passed. This resolution provides that e different trade union bodies in the country may secure from the Workers' Education Bureau (address, 465 West 23rd St. New York City) advice and service in the development of educational work in connection with trade unions. This movement for workeducation is one with which the Educational Committee has icen deeply concerned for many months, and they are glad at this Bureau for the extension of service to the different trade union

The Workers' Education Bureau has sent to the public lirarof the cities of this country in which there are Central Labor Chions, a copy of the Volume. This volume of 144 pages, contain ing an introduction by Mr Gompers, which can be seenred from the Bureau shows the development of workers' education.

Every trade unionist should know about this movement A our librarian for the copy of this Report. Further information on this movement can be obtained by writing to the Chairman of this Committee, care American Federation of Labor Building

"Keep Your Eye on Jim!"

"It's not alone what a man does during working hours, but outside of working hours—that determines his future. There are plenty of men who do a good job while they're at it, but who work with one eye on the clock and one ear cocked for the whistle.
They long for that loaf at noon and that evening hour in the bowling alley. They are good workers and they'll always be just that

Ing alley. They are good workers and they it always be just that—letr years from now they are likely to be right where they are today.

"But when you see a man putting in his noon hour learning more about his work, you see a man that won't stay down. His job today is just a stepping stone to something better. He'll never be satisfied until he hits the top. And he'll get there, because he's the him to he had been that he his the top. And he'll get there, because he's the him to have a man like June.

"Every important man in this plant won out in the same way. Our treasurer used to be a hookkeeper. The sales manager started in a branch office up state. The factory superintendent was at a lathe a few years ago. The chief designeer rose from the bottom in the draiting room. The braiting manager was a clerk.

"All these men won their advancements through spure time study with the listernational Correspondence Schools. Today they are some of four or five and the same was a much money as when they are some of four or five and the same was a scheme of four or five and the same way. Our treasurer used to be a hookkeeper. The sales manager started in a branch office up state. The factory superintendent was at a lathe a few years ago. The chief designeer rose from the bottom in the draiting room. The braiting man and more responsible positions. You want to make more money.
