

1000 LBS. GENUINE
ALABASTINEWALL COATING.
Alabastine makes a coat ing as firm as the wall itself. It hardens with age, and is beautiful and beautiful. It is also a disinfectant and sweetens rooms.

Alabastine should be used for every part of the building, to be whitened, tinted, painted, varnished, or stained. It is used under paint, varnish and paper, but makes a better finish alone for walls. Sixteen fashionable tints and white.

NEW HIGHWAY ACT—Forms under the new Highway Act are for sale at the ADVANCE OFFICE.

SALMON ANGLES' prospects are much better for the current season than they were last year. The Resolute men are having excellent success.

SALMON MOVING—On Friday last Paul Bennett was engaged in the first morning of the season at Dr. J. B. Bennett's. The grass was heavy and high and its ingathering makes a very early record for the Miramichi.

ENGINEERS—At the examination recently held by W. L. Warren, registrar of engineers at St. John, the following persons passed: James S. McCulloch, Chatham, 3rd class; David J. Gulliver, Dalhousie, and Lemuel Winchester, Charlottetown, permits.

BARTING—The loss of the Barting river was sold on Wednesday last to P. W. Sumner, Montreal, for four years, at the price of $5. One of the conditions is that it shall be open to the public for fishing at not more than $1.00 per day per rod.

FASTER TIME—Under the changed time on the I. C. R., which is to come into effect about 20th inst., the express train to and from Montreal will be faster than at present. That from Montreal will pass Chatham Junction at least an hour earlier than at present.

CROWN LANDS—Two vacant lots of Crown land were sold at the Crown Land office on Tuesday. One, a sixty acre lot on Caspary Creek, Gloucester county, was knocked down to J. C. Oughlan at $1.05 per acre; the other was a lot within the town plot of Grand Falls, and was bid in by John R. Graham for $50.

A LUMBER MERCHANT'S DEATH—A cable dispatch announces the death at Liverpool of James Smith, head of the firm of J. Smith, Smith and Brother, Mr. Smith was a well-known Canadian lumber merchant in Liverpool. For a long time he carried on business under the name of James Smith & Co. The firm got into financial difficulties a few years since and a new firm was the result.

NARROW ESCAPE—Lena, the eight year old son of Conductor Chas. Sterling of the Canada Eastern Railway, had a narrow escape from death at Fredericton on Thursday last. The lad was riding a bicycle and ran into an express wagon, loaded with iron. The wagon went over his body, but fortunately no bones were broken although he was considerably bruised. The bicycle was completely broken up.

CANADA EASTERN R. R.—At the annual meeting of the Canada Eastern Railway Company at Fredericton on Tuesday the following directors were elected: Alex. Gibson, H. B. McLean, E. E. Winslow, Alex. Gibson, Jr., Alfred Rowley, James Gibson and Chas. Hatt. At a subsequent meeting of the directors Mr. Gibson was re-elected president and G. F. Gregory, Q. C., secretary.

HAD POOR SUCCESS—Messrs. Geo. Y. Dittler, T. Corbett Allen and Albert J. Gregory returned home last evening from the Miramichi, where they have been spending the past few days angling for sea trout. They had but poor success, and seem to be of the opinion that there are still as good fish in the sea as ever was caught. (From Herald May 31st.)

THE TIME FOR SEA TROUT FISHING at Indian town, where these Fredericton gentlemen tried their luck, is in June, from about the 1st to the 15th, and not in May.

TIN WEDDING—A large number of their friends from the Snowball establishment visited Woodbury Park on Monday evening, accompanied by the Orpheus Orchestra, to honor Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Fisher on the occasion of their wedding. After the playing of national airs, the bride and groom were served and an hour or two spent very agreeably, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher proving agreeable and efficient entertainers.

NEW STORE—Mr. P. A. Noonan has fitted up the Pierce Block store recently vacated by Mr. W. T. Harris, and is now stocking it with a well selected assortment of general goods in the furniture line, including books and shoes. Mr. Noonan has had a thorough experience of Chatham trade as well as the advantage of extensive travel and observation elsewhere, which will, as doubt, materially assist him in achieving success in his new venture.

OBITUARY—Mary Ann Osborn Nicholson passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. George Brown, Friday at the advanced age of eighty-eight years and seven months. The deceased was born in Cumberland, England, but for many years had resided in Chatham. Since the death in January of her husband, the late Robert Nicholson, she had been staying with her daughter. There were twelve children in the family of which only four are living: Charles Nicholson, Ovi's Head, New York; Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. C. Richardson and Osborn Nicholson, Newcastle. Mrs. Nicholson was dearly beloved by a large circle of people all of whom felt the loss keenly. The funeral occurred on Monday afternoon at two o'clock, a large number of Chatham and Newcastle people being in attendance. Rev. W. Aiken officiated and the interment was in the St. Andrew's burying ground, Chatham. (Advocate.)

PERSONAL—Miss Sadie Thompson, daughter of Hon. F. P. Thompson, business graduating last night at Mount Allison Ladies College with the degree of M. L. A., captured a $10 prize for proficiency in natural science and at the graduating exercises read an admirable essay on "Tennyson's Women." (Herald.)

Amongst the distinguished gentlemen now salmon fishing on the Resolute are W. H. Penfold, S. A. Walsh, W. K. Vanderbiel, W. Seward Webb, Robert Gosselin, Dean Hoffman, Stamford Watson, C. F. Watson, F. O. Beach, W. M. Macpherson, Dean Sage, J. H. Stearns, H. Stikeman, C. F. W. Campbell, Edw. Bennett, C. C. Denning and others. President Kennedy of the Resolute Salmon Club was at Chatham on arrival at Metopola on Monday.
