TOM LONGBOAT BEATS THREE MEN AND

Konderful Ferformance of Indian Runner in Five Mile Race at Ottawa Summer Carnival

OTTAWA, July 29.—The feature of today's programme of sports in connection with the summer carnival, was Tom Longboat, the Indian runner, in the five mile race. He engaged to beat three men in relays and at the same time beat the Canadian record. He was successful in both. The race was an ideal one. He made the distance in 75.55 which is one minute and one second better than the Canadian record. Hilton Green was Longboat's first opponent but the dusky runner went away like a streak from him. At 2½ miles he was 75 yards behind. Tom Coley then chased Longboat's first opponent but the dusky runner went sprint he caught the Indian, staying with him for two miles. Lou Marsh of Toronto took his place for the last half mile. Marsh took 25 yards of a leid at the start, in the final quarter Longboat commenced to catch up and finished at Marsh's shoulder. Marsh is a beauty at 220 yards but the half mile was too much and Longboat won by as inch. He run the last mile the fastest of the five.
