CLOSING STOCK LETTER FROM RANDOLPH

(F. B. McCURDY & CO.)

New York, Nov. 13.—The Mexican news had a depressing effect on the London market, and prices came over lower from that centre. Our market opened down in full sympathy with the decline and even lower in some cases. Union Pacific for instance lost 1 1/2 points in the initial decline.

There was good support at the lower level, and prices soon rallied. Around 11 o'clock, however, enough stock was supplied to check the rally, and after that the market lost part of its early gain, during the rest of the day prices changed were irregular, and showed but little tendency in either direction. New Haven continued to be pressed for sales and again made a new low record, selling down to 76.

Amal. Copper was unfavorably affected by the continued decline in the price of the metal in London and the poor demand by consumers. In the afternoon the tone was generally heavy, but there was again a rally before the close, based on a statement from the White House that the Mexican situation was encouraging, and that the elimination of Huerta was expected. Stocks lost ground as a result of the day's dealing, but at no time was the market weak, as prices showed rather a stubborn resistance to the selling pressure. In the last few minutes after Mr. Wilson's statement had been made public dealings grew much more animated, and the market rallied sharply, carrying prices up as a rule to about last night's closing levels.

Total sales, 225,000; bonds, $2,114,500.

CLOSING LETTER ON COTTON MARKET

(F. B. McCURDY & CO.)

New York, Nov. 13.—The market has been steadier today. Trading is held in check by confusion over the size of the crop, and a comparatively narrow market proves responsive to small orders either way. Yesterday local traders sold on reports of an easier interior spot situation. There was covering today on the failure of confirmation of such reports and rumors of small slumping figures. Liverpool was relatively steady and the local market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 2 points. Fluctuations were somewhat irregular, but the general tendency was upward on a moderate demand, and sold some 8 to 10 points above yesterday's closing figures during the middle of the afternoon. Private advices from the south were in contrast to yesterday's. There were few mentions of the spot situation except to report firmness in the market of high grades, while there were many reports from the eastern belt to the effect that picking had been nearly completed and that the gins were running on short time. The rumors the preliminary of the National Ginners' Association were bullish appear to be very vague.
