

SQUARE MILE OF DUBLIN IS UNDER GUARD

Troops Have Thrown a Cordan Around Mile in Heart of Rebel Zone.

EVERY HOUSE TO BE SEARCHED

Field Kitchens Brought Within Lines So Troops Can Continue Until Work is Finished

Dublin, Jan. 16.—The whole section of North Dublin was cordoned by soldiers and police last evening and today. The street railway service along the north quay was suspended. The center of the cordoned district includes Church street and the place where the military were ambushed recently and North King street, the scene of fierce fighting in the Easter rebellion.

A total area of a square mile is surrounded, and the biggest raid Dublin has yet experienced has been under way. Only the military have been engaged inside the cordons and it is believed every house will be systematically searched, the raid lasting several days. Hundreds of soldiers are taking part, and field kitchens are providing them with food.

ALLEGED THREE ARE GUILTY OF MUCH STEALING

River Glade and C. N. R. Station at Moncton Centres of Supposed Crimes.

POLICE CONTINUING THEIR INVESTIGATIONS

One Man Arrested Cannot Be Moved Because He Has the Measles Now.

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 16.—Charged with a large number of thefts from stores in River Glade, as well as from the Canadian National Railway station at that place, William Smith, Ernest Harrison and John Harrison, the first named of River Glade and the Harrison of Golden Mountain, were arrested Friday last and brought to Moncton, where they were lodged in jail to await a preliminary hearing which is set for tomorrow morning. To get the voice of the Empire it is necessary to get the voice of all nations that compose it. There need be no apprehension as to Canada's permanent place within the Empire, but the persons who are sent out to represent Canada are responsible only in their expressions to the Canadian people.

Allege Many Crimes

The suspected men, were all arrested by Provincial Constable Benjamin Hanson, assisted by C. N. R. Police Officers Thomas Tremblay and S. J. Barry. They are alleged to have committed a whole string of robberies covering a period of a year or more, and to have carried on what the authorities describe as "a whole sale theft business," both in Westmorland and Albert counties. The warrant upon which the men were arrested charges them with the theft from the store of George Duncanson, River Glade, of ten shirts, several pairs of corsets, butter, 100 pounds of sugar, two pairs of shoes, ladies' hats and shoes, cotton, woolens and fannel clothes, and numerous other articles, to an estimated value of $250.

From River Glade

They are also alleged to have stolen a considerable quantity of merchandise from River Glade station, an inventory of which has not been fully completed. A search of the homes of the men was instituted and resulted in the discovery of a large quantity of alleged stolen goods. All of the three men arrested and Caleb Harrison are married, with the exception of John Harrison, and their ages range from 20 to 29 years.

Couldn't Make Hubby Join The Church By Her Hunger Strike

Danville Woman Abandons Effort as Husband Will Not Join Until "He Gets Ready"

Danville, Ill., Jan. 16.—Mrs. Ernest S. Harrington, who claimed to have been fasting for forty-eight days to influence her husband to join a church, ended her hunger strike Saturday, upon being advised by the Rev. G. S. Payne, of Eldorado to take food. Ernest S. Harrington, the woman's husband, says his wife has "seen the error of her own ways, and is willing to resume her daily routine of life." He says he will not join the church, and will not do so "until he gets ready."

Home From Peace Meet

Minister of Justice, who has arrived in New York on his way back to Ottawa. Mr. Doherty was one of the three representatives of Canada at the League of Nations Conference.

HON. C. J. DOHERTY

EMPIRE NATIONS MAY DIFFER BUT ALL ARE LOYAL

So Hon. Mr. Doherty Describes Differences That Occurred at League of Nations.

CANADA A NATION WITHIN AN EMPIRE

Delegates Responsible to Dominion Alone and Not to the Empire Heads He Declares.

New York, Jan. 16.—Hon. Chas. J. Doherty, minister of justice, and a member of the Canadian delegation to the assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva, returned in the British steamship Adriatic, which arrived at quarantine Saturday.

Discussing the recent meeting of the League of Nations at Geneva at which he with Hon. N. W. Rowett and Sir George Foster represented the Dominion, Mr. Doherty said that he and his conferees had been the spokesmen of the Canadian people, Canada although an integral part of the British Empire, now being a nation in itself.

Explains Differences

In regard to the fact that the stand taken by the Dominion delegates had differed on several matters from that of the representatives of Great Britain, Mr. Doherty said: "I have the utmost confidence that the Empire will hold, but the Empire members stand together on a basis of agreement and not on a basis of conflict. To get the voice of the Empire it is necessary to get the voice of all nations that compose it. There need be no apprehension as to Canada's permanent place within the Empire, but the persons who are sent out to represent Canada are responsible only in their expressions to the Canadian people."

Right to Independence

"We did not agree in several instances with Mr. Balfour at the League Council in regard to certain immediate, and in regard also to the admission to certain countries, but as I have stated, we reserve the right to express an independent opinion when we differ from those sent out from Downing street."

Paris, Jan. 16.—Aristide Briand, former French prime minister, succeeded today in the task undertaken by him yesterday to form a cabinet in succession to the ministry of Premier Leger, which resigned last Wednesday. Besides the premiership, M. Briand takes the ministry of foreign affairs. Louis Barthou becomes minister of war and Paul Doumer, minister of finance.

NEARLY READY TO START BIG AUTO CONTEST

Fifteen Thousand Dollars in Cars and Other Valuable Prizes to Be Given Away.

CHANCE TO BECOME MOVING PICTURE STAR

Biggest Vote Schedules Are Those Given at the Start So Early Entrance Advisable.

"The early bird catches the worm" is a trite saying, but a very true one insofar as The Standard's big Prize Contest is concerned. There is not a question of a doubt but what the contestants who enroll at the outset of the big $15,000 Prize Contest will be the ones who capture the largest prizes—the $2,500 7-passenger Studebaker; the $1,465 Gray-Dort, the Ford, the Motor Star prizes with The Universal Film Company and the other valuable prizes.

The Reason Why

Our reasons for this line of figuring are as follows: (1) It is a mass entry proposition to secure subscriptions before the race for the prizes begins in earnest and while others are deciding whether or not they will enroll. (2) The vote schedules given during the contest decline from time to time, sometimes as much as 20 per cent. It will take VOTES to win the prizes, therefore the plan is to get busy while you can get the utmost in votes for your efforts.

Another Point Explained

We have been asked by numerous persons how it can be a paying proposition to give away $15,000 worth of free automobiles and other prizes. An explanation in one of our former articles, the Contest is a business proposition, pure and simple. In a few weeks' time, we will quite possibly have from 30 to 100 canvassers, canvassing for votes and subscriptions, and competing for the $15,000 worth of free prizes. If we were to put out 100 canvassers, to thoroughly cover our territory, the cost in wages, hotel expenses, railroad fare, etc., during a ten week period, would be $15,000. For instance, the salary alone based at $30 per week for 10 weeks, would be $300; and for 75 persons would amount to something in the neighborhood of $15,000.

Then also, we have a curiosity to know who are the best hiders in the community. We also figure we can have more fun all around by giving the $15,000 away in the form of prizes than by hiring 75 canvassers at a certain figure per week.

Contest Begins Saturday

Saturday, January 22nd, is the opening day of the big automobile contest. In all possibilities you can win $15,000. See that your name is in the first published list of entrants if you plan on being one of the big winners. If you have not already sent in your entry blank do so without further delay. There is no reason why you cannot win the big Studebaker or one of the other free automobiles or other free prizes.

O'Callaghan Lands As Ordinary "Seaman"

Secretary of Labor Permits His Entrance to America—Decision Will Be Appealed.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Ignoring the State Department's order of deportation, Secretary of Labor Wilson yesterday granted Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork who arrived in Newport News recently without a passport, permission to land in the United States as a "seaman."

According to the ruling of the secretary of labor, O'Callaghan is permitted to land "for the purpose of re-shipment on board any vessel bound for any foreign port or place, unless the secretary of state directs that he be kept on his vessel."

Starts an Investigation

Surprised at the failure of the secretary of labor to recognize the formal ruling of the state department ordering deportation of O'Callaghan for attempting to enter the United States without a passport, Acting Secretary of State Davis last night announced that he would order an immediate investigation of the ruling of the department of labor by the solicitor for the state department.

FEAR WOMAN DROWNED AT ST. STEPHEN

Mrs. W. Tilley Hall Disappeared from Her Home During the Storm on Friday Night.

CLOTHING FOUND ON RIVER BANK

Search of Stream Fails So Far to Locate Any Trace of the Missing Woman.

Special to The Standard.
St. Stephen, N. B., Jan. 16.—During the fierce wind and rain storm of Friday night Mrs. W. Tilley Hall left her home at Heathland, the Eben Hall Farm, two miles from St. Stephen, causing intense anxiety in her home and since then throughout the community as she has never been seen since. She is thought to be about 40 years of age, and the mother of several children; she had been in a slightly demoralized condition in recent weeks and had made two unsuccessful attempts at drowning.

Escaped from Home

She had been closely guarded in her home, but Friday evening while Mr. Hall dozed momentarily she escaped from her home, her absence being discovered some time afterwards, and search instituted. The unfortunate woman made her way to St. Stephen and then to the Union wharf where she was seen by several walking along the street railway tracks without a hat but wearing a heavy coat with a fur collar.

Seen in St. Stephen

Generally it was supposed that it was some woman perhaps called from her home to a neighbor's house of sickness and no further attention was paid until Saturday when Mrs. Hall's absence became known.

Constant search was maintained in all directions and early Sunday morning her coat and skirt were found on the bank of the river above the falls and nearly opposite the Veazey residence apparently confirming the impression that she had found death in the river.

Searching the River

All day long boats with searching parties and grappling irons have operated on the river and the shores close by scanned by parties on foot, bridges far without further trace of the missing woman being found.

TURNED 'YELLOW' AND FLED AFTER BROKEN TRAGEDY

Police Find Eye Witness to Shooting of William A. Holland in Montreal.

MADE TWO PREVIOUS ATTEMPTS TO SHOOT

Friend Claims He Did Not Know Assassin Was Carrying a Revolver at the Time.

Montreal, Jan. 16.—"I guess I turned yellow and I ran away." This was the excuse John F. Coffey of 124 Sussex street, Montreal, an eye-witness of the shooting of William A. Holland by Major Robert M. Griffith on Friday afternoon in Holland's office. Coffey was discovered by the local detectives on the very slight evidence of a witness at the inquest that two men had been seen running on St. Sacrament street after the murder.

Ran Because Yellow

Coffey when questioned at once admitted he had seen the murder from beginning to end and gave the above reason as to why he had not volunteered information at once to the police.

He said he had been with Griffith all day Friday. They had gone to Holland's office at eleven in the morning and at that time E. R. D. Apple-gath, one of the partners of the firm employing Holland, had shown Griffith the door.

"I noticed that Griffith had his hand all the time in his overcoat pocket," said Coffey, "but I did not know why at the time." He had lunch with Griffith and in the afternoon again called at Holland's office. Griffith went up to the door of Holland's office," said Coffey, "and he opened the door. I was standing a short distance away. I heard Holland say: 'Till tonight, I'll confess I never did any harm to anyone.' Then a shot rang out and Griffith shut the door. He had not entered the office. I guess I turned yellow and I ran away." Coffey said he had not known at any time why he was with Griffith that he was carrying a revolver.

Kept Hand in Pocket

"I noticed that Griffith had his hand all the time in his overcoat pocket," said Coffey, "but I did not know why at the time." He had lunch with Griffith and in the afternoon again called at Holland's office. Griffith went up to the door of Holland's office," said Coffey, "and he opened the door. I was standing a short distance away. I heard Holland say: 'Till tonight, I'll confess I never did any harm to anyone.' Then a shot rang out and Griffith shut the door. He had not entered the office. I guess I turned yellow and I ran away." Coffey said he had not known at any time why he was with Griffith that he was carrying a revolver.

DRAGNET GETS 300 IRISH IN SOUTH ARMAGH

Forty Were Held at Barracks After Closest Search Crown Forces Ever Made.

MURPHY'S EXECUTION HAS BEEN DELAYED

Twelve Injured and One Killed in Pitched Battle Fought in Streets of Cork.

Belfast, Jan. 16.—Crown forces on Saturday swept through the district of South Armagh, the scene of recent alleged Sinn Fein activities, with great thoroughness. Troops and constabulary of the Ulster "specials" co-operated. Every road was under supervision. More than three hundred prisoners were taken in the various nets; but after a rigorous examination, only forty persons were held in the military barracks.

Execution is Postponed

Dublin, Jan. 16.—The execution of Joseph Murphy, which was due to take place tomorrow, has been postponed to Wednesday, pending a hearing of an appeal for the quashing of the court-martial sentence. The court martial found Murphy guilty of having led an attack in Cork on October 8 against the military, when Murphy is alleged to have carried a bomb and a revolver. Considerable evidence, it is said, will be produced tending to show that Murphy was not a member of the attacking expedition. The case is attracting widespread attention.

Battle in Cork Streets

Cork, Jan. 16.—Serious disorders followed the shooting here yesterday in which two detectives in plain clothes were wounded. The disorders occurred while a crowd was dispersing from a football match, and parties of men were trying to clear the streets. Altogether twelve persons were wounded during promiscuous firing, while Excise Officer Pring was killed by a stray shot from a passing lorry.

The excise officer had come to his home here for the week-end and was walking in the street with his brother and sister.

Peace Was Very Short

Dublin, Jan. 16.—The period of comparative quiet, which began in Dublin at the Christmas truce, proved short-lived. During the past week there was a continuous succession of tragedies in which the Crown forces and persons identified with the Sinn Fein movement appeared to have suffered more or less equally. The atmosphere in Dublin is now similar to that in Cork before martial law was declared. The people are becoming afraid to venture into the streets, owing to the number of conflicts in which the lives of bystanders are endangered. The city is alive with rumors of impending trouble.

Fight in Day-Time

According to one report, ambuscades against Crown forces, which previously have been staged chiefly after the curfew hours, will take place by daylight in the heart of the city, regardless of the risks of such attacks to pedestrians, for the purpose of forcing an extension of the martial law to the metropolis. That martial law will be instituted generally is credited. The belief prevailing in some quarters is that it will be put into effect in the next few days and be accompanied by the changing of the curfew hour from ten o'clock at night to eight o'clock.
