POOR DOCUMENT

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TELEGRAPH, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1904.

WANTED.

tents Wanted Everywhere

FOR SALE.

Choice Teas In Bulk and Packages

English Breakfast Tea, in 10 and 20 lb. boxes. Very fine for family

JAMES COLLINS, 208 and 210 Union Street, St. John, N.

BIRTH.

MARRIAGES.

DEATHS.

CLANCY—In this city, on Jan. 7th, James Clancy, in the 28th year of his age.

GILCHRIST—In this city, Jan. 8, Capt. Davenport C. Gilchrist, aged seventy-seven years, leaving a wife and one daughter.

WOODWORTH—In St. John West, Jan. 9, Susan, beloved wife of Edward C. Woodworth, in the sixty-fourth year of her age, leaving a husband, one son and daughter to mourn. mourn mourn McLaughlin—In this city, on Jan. 1904, Mary, wife of Wm. McLaughlin. TOBIN—At the public hospital, on Jan. 1 John G. Tobin, beloved son of Samuel I and Eliza A. Tobin, of Milkish, Kings cou

"THIS SCHOOL HAS BEEN THE MAKING OF ME."

Is what a young man who tras ju Fredericton

Business College, W J OSBORNE.

SHIP NEWS.

PORT OF ST. JOHN.

Friday, Jan. 8.

Coastwise—Barges No 1, 453, Nickerson, and No 2, 433, Salter, Parrisboro, and cld; sch E M Oliver, 13, Harkins, fishing, and cld.

Stmr Monteagle, 2,492, Parry, from Avonmoth, C P R, general.
Stmr Manchester Trader, 2,136, Linton, from Manchester via Halifax, Wm Thomson & Co, general.
Schr Moravia, 99, Creaser, from Ponce (P R), J W Smith, molasses.

Coastwise—Schrs Clara A Benson, 57, Brown, from fishing, 25,000 ibs fresh fish; Emily, 59, Morris, from Advocate Harbor, and cld.

Boston, Jan 8-Ard, strs Provan, Cal aven.
Darien, Jan 8—Sid, sch Normandy, Bath.
Jacksonville, Jan 8—Cld, sch Maggie M eough, Norwich.
Newport News, Jan 8—Sid, sch Thomas W
awson. Boston.

Lawson, Boston.
Norfolki, Jan 3—Cid, sch Bari of Aberdeen, Hahifax.

Sid—Sch Massasoit, New Haven.
Deleware Breakwater, Jan 8—Ard, schs Fortuna, from Windsor (towed to Overfalls Lightship by British steamer Manningtry. from Savanneh for Manchester, thence tug James McCauley to the breakwater.)
New London, Jan 8—Ard, sch Annie B Mitchell, Rockland.
New York, Jan 8—Ard, str Furnessia, Glasgow; schs F C Pendleton, Jacksonville; Rudon, Virginia; E R Kirk, do.
Portland, Jan 8—Ard, strs St Croix, St John; North Star, New York; Englishman, Liverpool; schs Geneva, Boston to load lumber for Buenos Ayres; Pemaquid, Winterport; W H Huntley, St John; Ravola, St John for New York.
Cld—Str Ottoman, Antwerp.
Stonington, Jan 8—Ard, sch Ayr, Bangor for Westerly.
Boston, Jan 9—Ard, str Catalone, Louisbourg; sch Aldine, Souris (P E I.)
Sid—Str Halifax, Halifax.
Boston, Jan 10—Ard, strs Romanic, Liverpool; Kansas, do; Oxonian, Andwerp; Saxor King, Rotterdam; Cape Breton, Louisbourg (C B.)
Sid—Strs Bostonian, Manchester; Sarmatian, Glasgow; schs Governor Ames, Newport News; Prescott Palmer, coal port.
Sid from the Roads—Sch J C Strawbridge, from Brunswick for Canuden.
Bahia, Dec 20—Ard, bqe Rosina, St John's (Nidd.)
Buenos Ayres, Dec 15—Ard, bge Alert,

Charleston, Jan 10—Ard, str Nemea, from Bremen.

New York, Jan 10—Ard, strs LaSavoie Havra; New York, Southampton: Umbria Liverpool; schs Clara E Randall, Port Spain: Ddward P Avery, Brunswick; Glemwood, Macoris; Howard A Hunt, Virginia; J Janeh ester Haines, Port Royal; James W Paul, jr. Fernandina; John Perice, Norfolk; John R Fell, Norfolk; Peter C Schultz, Värginia; Wn E Downes, Fernandina.

Sid—Bge J E Graham, Buenos Ayres; sch: Anna R Bishop, Darien; Francis Goodnow. Norfolk; George A McFadden, Wilmington: George Churchman, Virginia; Margaret F Roper, Jacksonville; Gracie D Buchanan, Fernandina; Ira D Sturgis, Virginia; Olive T Whittler, Fernandina (latter not previous Sty); Ophir, St Croix (D W I); Wm T Parker, New London, Jan 9—Ard, sch Lavonia, Port ew Berne. New London, Jan 9—Ard, sch Lavonia,Por

New London, Jan 9—Ard, sch Lavonia, Port Greville.

Pernambuco, Dec 16—Sid, bqe Belle of the Exe, St John's (Nfid); 21st, sch Stella St John's (Nfid.)

Pernambuco, Dec 16—Ard, sch Mystery, S John's (Nfid.)

Pernambuco, Dec 16—Ard, sch Mystery, S John's (Nfid.); 20th, brig Devonia, St John's (Nfid.); 20th, brig Devonia, St John's (Nfid.); 24th, bqe Helen Isabel, do.

Portland, Jan 10—Ard, strs Bonavista, Sydney (C B); Chas F Mayer, Baltimore, towing barge C, and sailed light; sch Ella Pressey, Rockland for New York.

Sid—Strs Iona, London; North Star, New York; sch Florence E Penley, Brunswick: also the fleet of coasters.

Vineyard Haven, Jan 10—Sid, sch Clifford I White, Port Liberty for Rockland.

Passed—Str Manhattan, New York for Portland; schs Cakley C Curtis, Norfolk for Portland; schs Cakley C Curtis, Norfolk for Portland; Metinic, Westport for Bath; Hilda C New York for Nova Scotla.

Boston, Jan II—Ard, stmrs Romanic, from Genoa: Huron, from Jacksonville; Boston from Yarmouth: schrs W R Huntley, from Harvey (N B); Future, from Apalachicola.

Sid—Stmrs Belgia, for Hamburg via Baltimore; Catalone, for Louisbourg (C B); S'Crolx, for Portland, Eastport and St John sohrs Chas L Davepport and John Paul, for Rootthay Harbor, Me, Jan 11—Sid, U S

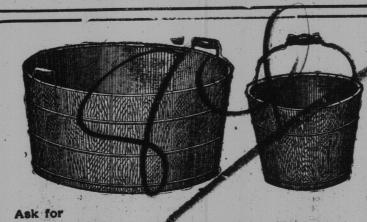

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his per-Chart Helichers sonal supervision since its infance.

Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children—Experience against Experiment.

What is CASTORIA toria is a farmless sostitute for Castor Oil, P either Opium, Morph Its age is its guarance. Its Feverishness. It was Diar lieves Teething Loubles, on Incy. It assimilates the and Bowels, withing health as d, regulates the

CASTORIA ALWAYS e Signature of

The Kind You Have Always Bought In Use For Over 30 Years.

Steel Wire Hoop Ware Made by THE E. B. EDDY CO., and sold by all Gr cers

Sid—Schrs J S Lamprey, for Norfolk; Cerea, for New Orleans; Martha E Wallace, for Brunswick; Martha S Bement, for Darien. New London, Conn, Jan II—Sid, schrs Lavonia, for Port Greville; Fiheman, from Stonington for Port Greville; Venus, from Providence for Port Greville; Annie B Mitchell, from Rockland for Annapolis.

Portland, Jan II—Ard, stmrs Fridtjof Nansen, from Louisbourg (C B); St Croix, for St John; schrs Amelia F Cobb, from Rockland for Boston; Abble & Eva Hooper, and Lena faud, from St John for New York, with lumber.

wander, from St. Condon and St. Cond

AST OF VESSELS BOUND TO ST. JOHN.

Manchester Dec 21.

Manchester Exchange, 2,649, Manchester vi.

Halifax, Jan 4.

Montcalm, 3,508, Antwerp, Jan 2.

Montfort, 3,555, Bristol, Jan 9.

Prinoco, 1,551, St Kitts via Bermuda, Jan

Parisian, 3,385, to sail from Liverpool, Ja ritonia, at Glasgow, Jan 9. yandotte, 3,712, at Cape Town, Dec 7.

Barquentines.

Ansgar, 386, at Dundalk, Nov 22. Othel Clark, 397, Apalachicola, Nov 26; Bermuda, Dec 25, leaking.

Di by Shipping Notes

ras gone into winter quarters at Snow's wharf.

Schoomer Bay Queen, Capt. McKay, arrived at Tiverton yesterday with coal from Parrisboro via Digby. Schooner Carrie H., Capt. Robbins, sailed from Digby yesterday or Tiverton, having discharged 3,000 had-lock at the Racquette.

Capt. White's schooner Racehorse is being sepaired at Gilbert's Cove.

The St. Mary's Bay coasting fleet have tone into winter quarters with the exception of the schooner Lizzie Dyas, Capt. Gondallett. She is on a voyage from Church Point with a cargo of ship timber for Rockand (Me.)

The bay is filled with ice from Brighton of Cilbert's Point.

The bay is filled with fee from Brighton of Gilbert's Point.
Schooner J. W. Cousins, Capt. Arthur Casey, sailed yesterday for the fishing grounds. This vessel, one of the largest of our fleet, has been laid up waiting for a capain and crew. There are not enough men to keep our whole fleet on the fishing grounds at the one time.

Schooner W. Parnell O'Harra, Capt. Wm. Snow, is at the Racquette discharging a large tare of fish.

Another gale of wind accompanied by a mow storm has delayed trains to day. There are no yessels anchored off Digby.

The haddock fishermen report big catches of fish off Petite Passage.

A number of Digby people are at Culloden ove today attending the sale of the wrecked schooner S. P. Hitchcock.

Patient-"Call again tomorrow? Why

14. dalacia, 2,636, at Glasgow, Jan 6.

ALMOST AFRAID TO GO TO SLEEP FOR FEAR SHE WOULD NOT WAKE UP.

FLUTTERING OF THE HEART. SHORTNESS OF BREATH. FAINT AND DIZZY SPELLS.

Mrs.Wm. Bingley, Grand Tracadie, P.B.L. Eas a Very Trying Experience, but Thanks to

MILBURN'S HEART AND NIRVE Digby, N. S., Jan. 9 —Schooner Valdare a yed from Boston Wednesday and was tower

THE T. MELBURN CO., Limited, Canadian Apples i Glasgew The following is an extract from the repor gow, on fruit ex steamship Concordia, of the Donaldson line:—
"Steamship Concordia arrived at Glasgow Dec. 11, with 1,825 barrels Canadian apples, and 1,816 barrels Nova Scotia apples. The most of the Canadians were more or less frosted. The Nova Scotian apples were in better condition, being fairly free of frost. The best of these-seventy-five barrels of Kings—made 18s.; these were of very fancy quality. The barrels were well stowed throughout the steamer, and were landed with very few broken."

Foston & Maine Roads Blocked.

Portland, Me., Jan. 11.-The derailmen crossing blocked the eastern division of the Boston & Maine today. All trains of the eastern division went over the west ern division via North Berwick. No one ing's foundry, was yesterday breaking up scrap at the rear of the building, when a wheel he had just proped up, fell break-ing both his legs. He was taken to the bogrital. Bolton in a married man about the last time I was here you said I needn't come after today."

Dr. Wyse—"I know; but I've got a bill i must pay this week; so I need the money you see."

COUNTRY MARKET.
Turnips, per bbl 0.50	to	0.75
Beets, per bbl 1.25		1.00
Canned beef 0.08		0.081/
Beef, butchers, carcass 0.06	41	0.08
Beef, country, quarter0.05		0.07
Lamb, carcass0.07		0.08
Mutton, per lb 0.00		0.06
Vool nor 1h 0.06		0.08
Pork, carcass0.061	6 "	0.07
Shoulders, per lb0.10		0.12
Ham, per lb 0.12		0.14
Roll butter, per lb 0.22		0.25
Tub butter, per lb 0.17		0.20
Eggs, new laid 0.28		0.82
Torre case ner dos U.Z		0.25
Turkey, per lb		0.22
Fowl, per pair 0.60		0.80
Potatoes, per bbl 1.30	"	1.50
Carrots, per bbl 1.25		1.40
Chickens, per pair 0.60		1.00
Calfskins, per lb 0.10		0.00
Sheenskins 0.60		0.70
Cabhage, native, per doz 0.80	16	1.50
Suash, per lb		0.03
Geese 1.00		1.35
Ducks, per pair1.00	"	1.60
FISH.
D'ISC.

GROCERIES.
		0.121/2
Rice per 15		0.23
Cream of tartar, Dure Doxes V.		1.75
Sal soda, per lb 0.00%		0.01%
Porto Rico new 0.43		0.44
Barbados 0.40		0.41
New Orleans (tierces) 0.29		0.36
Liverpool butter salt, per	"	0.63
bag, factory filled 1.00		1.65
Sandard granulated 4.05		4.15
Austrain, granulated3.96		4.05
Bright yellow 3.75		3.85
Bright yellow 2 45		3.55
No 1 yellow3.45		0.0514
Paris lumps 0.05 Pulverized 0.05%		0.06
FRUITS, ETC.
Val oranges	46	3.75

Pulverized	0.05%		0.06
FRUITS, ETC.
Val oranges	3.50		3.75
Almerira grapes, keg	4.50		5.50
Currants, per lb 0.	0514		0.051/
Currants, cleaned	0.08		0.061/
Dried apples	0.04%	46	0.05
Grenoble walnuts	0.14		0.15
Almonds	0.12		0.12
California prunes	0.05		0.08
Filberts	0.09		0.10
Brazils	0.13		0.14
Pecans	0.14	46	0.15
Dates, per pkg	0.06		0.00
Dates, new	.316		0.04
Beef tongue, per lb	0.10		0.00
Peanuts, roasted	0.09		0.10
New for	0.10		0.18
New figs	0.04		0.05
Malaga London layers	1.90	. 66	2.00
Malaga clusters	2.75		4.00
Malaga, black, baskets	2.15		2.25
Malaga, connoiseur, cius	3.10	66	3.25
Jamaica Oranges, per bbl	5.50		6.00
Onions, Canadian	3.50		0.00
Unions, Canadian	0.00		0.00
Raisins, Sultana, new	1.00		2.50
Bananas	2 00	44	3.00
Lemons, Messina, per box	3 75		0.00
Cocoanuts, per sack	0.00		0.60
Cocoanuts, per doz	0.12
Evaporated apricots	0.10		0.12
Evaporated peaches, new	0.0614		0.07
Apples, evaporated	9.75		8.00
Now onnies	# . 10

The following are wholesale quotations per case: Fish—Hump Backed brand, $4.25; cohoes, $5.25; spring fish, $5.75 to $6. Other kinds of fish are: Finnan haddie, $3.75 to $4.00; oysters, 25; lobsters, 2.76; clams, 3.75 to $4.00; oysters, 1s, 1.35 to 1.45; oysters, 2s, 2.35 to 2.40.

Meats—Corned beef, 1s, 1.60; corned beef, 2s, 2.65; lunch tongue, 3.00; ox tongue, 7.00; pigs feet, 1s, 1.25; roast beef, 2.15.

Fruits—Pears, 2s, 1.60; peaches, 2s, 1.80; peaches, 3s, 2.75; pine apple, sliced, 2.25; pine apple, 2.75; pine apple, 1.75; Lombard plums, 1.60; green gages, 1.65; blueberses, 1.10; raspberries, 1.66 to 1.75.

Valables—New corn, per doz., 95 to $1.00; pine, $1.00; ox tongue, $1.00; pine, $1.00;

Cornmeal 2.65 to 3.70

Hay, pressed, car lots 10.50 11.50

Oats (Ontario), car lots 0.39 0.40

Beans (Canadian) h p 2.200 2.10

Beans prime 1.80 1.90

Split peas 5.20 5.25

Pot barley 4.30 4.40 GRAIN, ETC.

 Datmeal
 4.15
 " 4.40

 Middlings, small fots, bag'd
 23.50
 " 24.50

 Bran, small bag'd
 22.50
 " 23.00

 Danadian high grade
 4.60
 " 4.65

 dedium patents
 4.30
 " 4.50

 Iand-picked pea beans
 2.00
 " 2.10

ing operations in used to advant-Soap cannot be age. It mal

An Ideal Husband.

By Eben E. Rexford.

On the evening of Mrs. Dunham's dinner-party, Mrs. Reed was out of sorts with her-that time Mrs. Reed had fretted herself alself, and everybody, if the truth must be told. Nothing had gone right, that day. Her new dress not sent home until afterneen, when the modiste had promised it in the morning, disappointed her. Several changes had to be made in it at the last there had been trouble with the cook, and -Mr, Reed, to whom she rehearsed her trials, did not seem to take them to heart his dress fits me when I know all the other were married." yomen are making mental comment about t," said Mrs. Reed, crossly. "If you'd had as many vexations as I have to day, I cheerful sights and sounds. She tried to den't believe you'd feel like passing them read and found her book tiresome. The all eff as a joke. One would naturally sup pose that a wife had a right to expect a lit-tle sympathy from her husband. But and would not be back until evening. Once inety-nine times out of a hundred she or twice the thought came to her that she

"Oh, well, it doesn't matter," responded Mrs. Reed, loftily, and with an air that said starve for the food the heart needs. Already she was used to being misunderstood and her heart seemed atrophied, she told herself. unappreciated "Sone husbands that I And much more, of a similar view, that now are thoughtful of their wives. They went to show, had she have been able to treat them as well after marriage as they look at it in the proper light, how great a did before. But they're the exceptions fool a woman can make of herself when she that prove the rule. We have no right to sets about it, in a morbid, unreasoning expect much of the most of them-after the way.

"I'd like to know what I've done to de- how lonely I am," she said, as the evening serve such a scolding, over the shoulders of husbands in general," said Mr. Reed, lookwore on. 'Very likely he's glad to stay husbands in general," said Mr. Reed, looking puzzled. "I'm sure I don't know what I'm to blame about."

Word on, very likely he's glad to stay away as long as possible. I don't b-lieve Rothwell Dane treats his wife in this way.

he turned and went out of the room. In you know. That kept me." the hall he sat down to wait for her, and as "What do you mean by the Rothwell Dane affair?" asked Mrr. Reed. he waited he puzzled over the problem of the woman. Did a man live-had a man took it for granted some one would have told you all about it during the day. You puzzle past finding out!

The first thing Mrs. Reed saw, when she haven't seen anyone? Then, of course, you little tableau of conjugal love that half angered her. Rothwell Dane was leaning with a woman that he's been infatuated ver the back of his wife's chair, smiling of his most intimate friends suspected it, and they said nothing, hoping it would blow over. But-he's gone, and the womment, he was oblivious of the presence of other women. His wife was the one woman was quite bad enough for such work, but I "If my husband were like that now," never had any too good an opinion of him. thought Mrs. Reed. "They are lovers yet, though married. That's as it ought to be. in public, and it always seemed to me done for effect. I don't understand how any But John and I—why, we're just friends! I wonder that men can't see how hungry woman could care to have her husband be. kind. But perhaps they do see, and don't have like that. I don't believe you'd care to have me do it."

Mrs. Reed watched Rothwell Dane the while he was speaking. So Rothwell Dane's lever-like deference to his wife had entire evening, and made herself miserable in consequence. He hovered about his be n all pretence. And she had admired wife like a man just engaged to the woman it so much. And she had envied the poor he loves. He seemed to anticipate her

Reed asked herself more than once. "He just she had been. She arrang toward her never sees the little things I want done. I husband, and threw her arms about his have to tell him about them, or do them neck in a mood of self-abasement and shame, and hid her face on his breast, crymyself. He ought to know about them

Dane did on his wife?

Mrs. Reed went home from the party formulated in her mind. Some of these over-like attentions had grown to be unbearable, she would tell him of his shortcomings and repreach him for not living up to the standard of Rothwell Dane. In the meantime she would "suffer and be still," and nurse her grievance. And she did so, fears that had tortured her so for the past finding and her dissatisfaction with her husband The fact was, she had no reason bably not have done so had she been quite herself. But by brooding over the matter asked her what the matter was. "Oh, asked no more questions, though he knew very well that something was wrong But a feeling of shame, and wonder at herself. he also knew that he had done nothing to went about from room to room, haun'ed by

"I don't suppose he gives one thought to

There was a st p in the hall, and John

"Ah, up yet, are you? I hep you didn't wait for me. I came as soon as I could, but I hope you'd go to sleep and not werry about my tardiness. It couldn't be helped

I never stayed out so late before did I? Fact is, I'd have been here an hour ago if came in to ask my advice about that Roth-well Dane affair. Mrs. Dene's his nicce,

"Why, don't you know!" said Reed. "I an's gone with him, and they say his wife's almost cra y over it. I didn't suppose he

Mrs. Reed was thinking many things striving for love. And all that time poor Reed was worrying himself half sick over her and her treatment of him, but, being at man like ordinary men, he felt helpless to prevent the trouble that he did not understand, and did not blame himself for it, as "Oh, never mind, Julie. Worse things might have happened. You'll forget all his wife thought he ought to about them when you get to Mrs. Dun "He might know why I a "He might know why I suffer so?" she told herself. 'He would know, if he loved

"Quite likely I'll forget how miserably me as he made me believe he did, before we cared very little if he never came back, but "Row do you know about the ninetynine per cent of unsympathetic husbands?"

loughed Mr. Reed. "I don't believe you loughed Mr. Reed. "I don't believe you loughed Mr. Reed."

"I don't believe you let the needer came back, but such a thought horrifeld it, when she realized the full mport of it, and she blamed herself for it. But the blamed him more. anderstand the one per cent of husband 'If he knewli' she kept saying to herself. that you lay claim to as well as you ought "And he might know, he ought to know!

Men are so selfish, so absorbed in themselves and business, that they let their wives

"Oh, you aren't to blame about any happ ness." thing," said Mrs. Reed, with smiling sarsm. "Of course not. Man never are. feeling hurt over what they haven't done, quite as much as over what they have done. That's one of our poculiarities. We're hardly responsible for it, you know, being foolish women," and Mrs. Reed's tone took on a sharper suggestion of ill-nature that told she was in one of her most fault-find-som thing hadn't happened to detain me after my business was done. Dunham in the world to him just then.

woman who now sat alone in a desolated without my telling. Dane does." ing hysterically.

Mrs. Reed did not do her husband the Reed thought her tears were those of justice to credit him with doing whatever sorrow, and sympathy for her friend, and she asked of him willingly. Nor did she admit to herself that he never asked her to do for him anything that he could do for himself. He was always kind, always even-tempered, always willing to do things the folly of the past month. How little even tempered, always willing to do things for—but he had to be asked to do them, many times. That was what nettled her Why couldn't he see what she wanted done, body could be kinder to a woman than this and dance attendance upon her whims as quiet, steady going husband of hers who that she came to look at it through unprejudiced eyes, was elequent of steadfast

> "Oh John," she cried, I fting her tearwet face to his, 'how glad I am you're not like Rothwell Dane." "How could I be like him, with such a

Let me do her the justice to say that she was not feeling as well as usual that Win.

And she did so.

fears that had tortured her so for the past month. Then she shut her teeth hard up in ter. That accounted largely for her faultsdould never know what had been in her mind. She would do penance for all her unjust thoughts and unfounded trouble by never again wanting her husband to be any she magnified molehills into mountains and made terself peevish and unreasonable.

Rewondered at her. She had never been she will be head," she said to herself "I Dane's treachery had openel her eyes to a was blind, but now I see."

And honest, steadfast hearted, unsusasked her what the matter was. "Oh, nothing werth mentioning." she answered, picious John Reed never did know what nothing werth mentioning." and had been in his wife's mind. . . To day described to advantdescribed her for reasons that she did not feel willing a position and getting a job.—Betrett Free