

AUTO WRECK IN CAMPBELLTON, CHAS. W. ANSLOW LIKELY TO DIE

Car Turns Over;
Five in It

Son of Thomas Malcolm Suffers Internal Injuries

Mr. Anslow Pinned Down as Auto Goes Over—Unconscious, and it is Feared He Cannot Recover—Thieving
Junk Dealer Sent to Jail for Two Months.

Campbellton, July 19.—The destitute residents of fire-stricken Campbellton were plunged into more grief this afternoon and became at once forgetful of their losses in the recent conflagration when the news spread through the community that one of its most zealous workers and most esteemed members, Charles W. Anslow, lay at the point of death in the Hotel Dieu Hospital as the result of an automobile accident, which, while it was a tragedy, was also a tragedy for the community, as it was the son of Thomas Malcolm, son of Thomas Malcolm, of the International railway, was suffering intense pain from internal injuries.

The accident occurred about 4.30 o'clock.
Mr. Anslow and Mr. Malcolm were driving in a car in company with Wm. Mott, Oliver Mowatt and Robert Shives, the latter being the driver. The car was being propelled backwards down Andrew street, it came into the gutter and turned over on one side, puncturing a tire, breaking figures and throwing its occupants out into the road. The others in the car escaped with slight scratches with the exception of Mr. Malcolm.

Mr. Anslow was sitting in the rear seat and was pinned under the car. He was pinned up unconscious by J. R. McKenzie and some other men who were standing by. He has not since regained consciousness, and Dr. Murray, who with Doctors Paul and Martin attended him, said tonight that he feared concussion of the brain. It is thought that there is little chance of his recovery.

Was Doing Noble Work.

Mr. Anslow was connected with the Campbellton Graphic, which plant was destroyed by the fire of last week, and since that time he had been at work in one of the relief stations endeavoring in every possible manner to alleviate the sufferings of those in destitute circumstances.

Practically the only thing he saved from the flames was the suit of clothes which he wore, but even with an injured hand to hinder him, he kept up the good work of relief, assisting the committee. He was a general favorite and the accident has caused great regret about the town.

H. B. Anslow, a brother of the unfortunate young man, was in Fredericton at the time, but has been sent for. An invalid sister resides in Chicago.

While a damper was thrown on the work by the sad accident, it had not been diminished, as there is much to be done in the relief work.

The citizens' committee is composed of J. H. MacDonald, Rev. Dean Schofield, Rev. Father Carney, Edward Moore and Donald Fraser. The attendance was ill but representative.

THE CAMPBELLTON DEBT
(Montreal Herald).

The embarrassing position of Campbellton in regard to its municipal debt may soon be relieved, as a warning to Canadian municipalities against the habit of borrowing upon assets that cannot be insured, a debt of $300,000 upon a community of 5,000 people is calculated, or $60 for each man, woman and child in the place, a pretty severe handicap for even an amount town to carry; and when the taxpayer of that town is wiped out by somebody is going to suffer.

Recently it is to the interest of the holders, who are probably insurance companies and trustees for the most part, make such terms as will allow of the building of the town and prevent the absolute destruction of what is left of their property. A considerable writing off of debt and possibly of capital may be necessary. This is a risk that investors are to consider in buying small town bonds, and the doubtless accounts largely for the low price. Probably the most effective aid that the Province of New Brunswick could give in the circumstances would be to extend its guarantee to the rescued town's indebtedness during the time that must elapse before it is again a sound financial footing. The present of the Ontario Government and embarrassed Sault Ste. Marie industries are applicable, and indeed the Camp-sion situation would justify such action more strongly.

Business Men Protest.

Considerable indignation has been aroused among merchants who formerly conducted business houses here and who intend in the near future to re-open them by alleged plans of outside concerns coming to the town to establish mercantile houses.

The local dealers claim that, as they lost their property and custom in the conflagration, they should be given first chance in making a start in regaining their financial standing. Many of them have suffered large losses by the fire and na-

GOVERNOR TWEEDIE SEES URGENT NEED OF GREATER HELP FOR STRICKEN TOWN

Winter Coming and What Will People Do? Neighbors Who Helped Sufferers, Though Poor Enough Themselves, Must Share in Fund—His Honor Urges New Brunswickers to Give All They Can, and Soon.

Wednesday, July 20.
At large, have a clear idea of the seriousness of the situation at Campbellton. This was the statement made to the Telegraph over the long distance telephone last night by Lieutenant-Governor Tweedie at Chatham. His Honor had just returned from Campbellton where, in company with Premier Hazen and F. P. Brady of the Intercolonial Railway, he met the business men of the fire swept town, and discussed plans for the future.

When asked last night what he thought of conditions there, he declared that, while the people had shown great pluck in the terrible disaster, he believed that too much financial assistance could not be given. "I think," he said, "it is absolutely necessary for the people of the province to do at once in twelve weeks, cold weather will be upon us, and I dread to think of the suffering at Campbellton if the people there are not properly helped. One can understand how to the casual observer, the situation looks favorable, but when one stops to think that many are now living in tents, while hundreds of other poor people are billeted with friends in the surrounding towns and villages, many of whom have little means themselves, the outlook takes on a serious aspect. The great deal of this financial assistance must necessarily be devoted not only to those who have suffered, but to those who are befriending and providing for people who lost everything in the fire of last week. We are apt to forget that whatever insurance was carried, will be paid to those who are in most cases able to insure again, and will not aid the hundreds of people who have absolutely nothing. To me, the situation looks grave, and I think the people of New Brunswick should raise every-cent they can and as quickly as they can, to assist the poorer people of Campbellton."

In reply to a question, His Honor said that it had not yet been decided to call a special meeting of the legislature. It was suggested that the business men of the town hold a meeting and decide on what they think ought to be done, and if the government finds it necessary, the legislature can meet and take any steps that are deemed advisable. This might apply to the changing of streets and the like. The matter of the I. C. R. changing its divisional point from Campbellton was also discussed. While no definite action was taken, the government was said to be in favor of retaining Campbellton as the divisional point, and this seemed to greatly encourage the business men of the town. "I made the suggestion, that as the I. C. R. required more land, it was necessary for the Campbellton not to stand for unfair treatment in this respect."

"I cannot help admiring the courage of the people of Campbellton," the governor added. "While there, I visited the tents and even among the women I heard not one word of complaint. All seemed to be thankful that there had been no loss of life, and willing to do all they could to assist in the building of the new town. Notwithstanding this, however, I wish to say emphatically, that unless financial assistance comes quickly, and in generous proportions, I think there will be great suffering in Campbellton when the cold weather begins."

His Honor was asked:
"Nothing definite was done in that regard," he replied. "It is a serious problem, but one that may be worked out satisfactorily if the proper financial assistance is given to the fire-stricken people as soon as possible."

It was evident from the conversation with Governor Tweedie that he had looked into the situation at Campbellton with great care and that he considers it more serious than the reports so far have led the public to believe.

It is not to be taken kindly to the idea of merchants from other places taking away their trade while they are engaged in the work of relieving the unfortunate by committee duties in which almost all of them are engaged.

Junk Dealer Sent to Jail.

Quick judgment was made this afternoon in the case of a foreign junk dealer who was convicted of stealing. He was arrested by Policeman Brown on suspi-tion of having stolen some junk from R.

K. Smith. He was brought before Judge Matheson and sentenced to two months in jail in Dorchester. The court proceedings took place in a tent and sentence was passed in little more than an hour from the time of the arrest. No further pilfering is reported of late as a sharp watch is kept for those engaged in this practice.

It was an agreeable surprise to a woman who was made homeless by the fire to find, on returning to Campbellton today, that she was still the owner of some valuable silverware. She had been prudent enough to bury it in a spot not reached by the flames and when she came back today she, with eager hands, removed a little earth and was filled with joy at the sight of the family silver lying unscathed before her.

Smoke is still rising from many parts of the ruins and in some places bright flames are still casting gleams of fire over the ashes of the devastated town. All day long a stream of water was played on the ruins of the post office and customs house by the fire.

The people are not suffering from want, as there are plenty of provisions, but some articles of clothing are extremely hard to get, such as linen and underclothing for the men. Many commercial men from outside towns arrived yesterday and from the extent of the orders given most of them, it would seem that the merchants who are to re-open their establishments expect a great rush of business.

In the settlement of tents strict measures have been taken by Col. Maithly, of the provincial board of health, to ensure proper sanitation, he having had closets, incinerators, latrines and garbage barrels placed in different quarters. In the ruins he has cremated the carcasses of the animals which were killed by the fire, and then carted to the coal fires, which are made to say that the Shivers Lumber Company would not rebuild the mill at Campbellton, was not correct. Mr. Anderson says he made no such statement, and, in fact, is not in a position to make such a statement. He adds he is not the superintendent for the company, and that W.

F. Napier is the manager. The Telegraph cheerfully gives publicity to Mr. Anderson's statement. No doubt the error was due to the difficulty of collecting and transmitting news under existing conditions at Campbellton.

Kent County Contributions.

Richibucto, N. B., July 19.—(Special).— Citizens of Rexton and Richibucto have forwarded $200 to the Campbellton fire sufferers. The committee of the municipal council today voted $200 and other contributions from nearby towns will amount to $100, besides clothing and other useful articles. High Sheriff Johnson is in charge of the work.

St. George Contributions.

St. George, N. B., July 19.—The following telegrams have been sent to Mayor Murray of Campbellton:

St. George, July 15.

Mayor Murray, Campbellton, N. B.: Draw on town treasurer for $100. Am writing.

C. H. McGEE,
Mayor.

St. George, N. B., July 16.

A fund of $250, subscribed by the citizens of St. George, for the fire sufferers, has been placed in N. I. Taylor's hands. Please draw for same.

Toronto Gives $1,000 More.

Toronto, July 19.—(Special).—The Toronto board of control this morning made a second grant of $1,000 to the Campbellton fire sufferers.

Campbellton, N. B., July 20.—Charles W. Anslow, who was injured in the automobile accident yesterday died today and was buried in the cemetery in Newcastle on Friday. H. B. Anslow and William Corbett, Jr., went with the body to the latter place. It is probable that Mr.
Anslow, who was a lieutenant in the military, was buried with full military honors.

Major Lawlor, of the 12th Field Battery, will likely make necessary arrangements.
Mr. Anslow was well known throughout northern New Brunswick, and his death is a new source of sorrow to the people of this town.

I. C. R. Likely to Rebuild.

Moncton, July 20.—E. Tillin, general traffic manager of the I. C. R., said today that the re-building of the I. C. R. works in Campbellton, in his opinion, is assured.
If rebuilt they will be on as large, if not larger, a scale than those destroyed. The general layout of the yard in that case would have to be rearranged and also the enlargement of the works would necessitate the closing of several streets in order to give access to the property, and doing away with Main street crossing and the substitution of an underground roadway in its stead. The Intercolonial loss is difficult to appraise. It will not be known just how badly the locomotives are damaged until they are brought here and given a thorough overhauling.

Card of Thanks.

Dalhousie, N. B., July 19, 1910.—Mrs.
Daniel O'Keefe and family, of Campbel-ton, thank their many friends for their kindness and consideration of them in their recent trouble and bereavement; especially Captain Gieseler, of the wrecking tug Goliath, and his crew, for their prompt assistance and the placing of their boat at their disposal.

Fredericton Festival a Great Success.

Fredericton, July 20.—(Special).—The Fredericton fund for the relief of the Campbellton fire sufferers will be greatly augmented by the proceeds of a benefit festival held in Seely's Grove tonight under the auspices of the Fredericton Labor Council, assisted by other organizations.
The attendance was in the thousands and the proceeds will be large. In a long procession from Seely's Grove to Seely's Grove, the Fredericton Brass Band, the Fowler Company, Uniform Rank K. of P., the fire department members, the 71st Regiment Band, the Labor Council took part in the parade which was of the best kind seen here for some time. The weather was ideal.

Campbellton's Needs.

(Evening Times).

How far will $45,000 go to repair losses that are probably $200,000 in excess of the insurance?

The Campbellton relief fund is now said to amount to about $45,000. The total loss must have been at least $200,000, and some say much more; and the insurance was apparently less than $150,000. This would indicate a dead loss of fully $25,000-000.

The heaviest burden of this dead loss falls upon people who had no insurance and who lost everything. Now to what extent are they helped by what has been done?

If they were hungry, they have been fed.
They were given the shelter of tents, and perhaps some needed clothing. In a word, their immediate wants were to some extent supplied. But otherwise they are today as they were the night after the fire—without anything to help them in the work of providing for themselves against the rigors of a Restigouche winter.

The response throughout the province to the first cry for help was worthy of all praise. But it merely supplied the immediate needs of the people who had been stripped of all their belongings. Those people are now able, no doubt, to work and to earn some money, but they are still homeless—and, as Lieut.-Governor Tweedie pointed out, the weather is only a matter of about twelve weeks away. They have no houses, no furniture—nothing but their bare hands. This, of course, refers to those who carried no insurance. Of those who did carry some, many will not be able to provide themselves with homes without outside help.

What is the remedy? The government should take action. Municipal bodies should be urged to do so. Prompt and well-organized relief is an urgent necessity.
Entertainments should be given to raise funds. Popular subscriptions of small sums by all the people should be handed in to some central place, and the mayor's office in St. John. And no time should be lost.
Almost before they realize it the Campbel-ton sufferers will find winter upon them.

It must not be forgotten that there is also resting on the town a bonded indebt-ness of over $300,000.

It is true that perhaps not more than a tenth of the people of Campbellton are now on the spot. The rest have gone to friends elsewhere. But they did not leave their poverty in Campbellton, and very many, doubtless the great majority, will return as soon as conditions warrant such a course. But whether they do or not, they need assistance. They are victims of the fire.

Mary Gould is Found.

Boston, Mass., July 20.—Miss Mary Gould, described as heiress to property in Moncton, has been located in Providence and is now en route to Moncton.

VALE MONK!

Ottawa Journal Says Some Things About Conservative Affairs

PASSES HIM OVER
TO MR. BOURASSA

Things He Might Have Done and Did Not Do—A Contrast; Where Laurier Won Recognition and Thanks of Dominion and Empire.

Ottawa, July 19.—The Ottawa Journal, edited by P. D. Ross, a close personal friend of B. L. Borden, says editorially, under the heading "Mr. Monk well lost":

"The Conservative party of Canada meets a stroke of good fortune in the departure of F. D. Monk, hitherto recognized as the leader of the party for the Province of Quebec who has now joined forces openly with Mr. Bourassa.

"That Mr. Monk has been not only a dead weight on the party but a drawback and a danger to it, has for some time been recognized by most of the party in the other provinces. Some men, by unswerving and aggressive loyalty to their party, make up to it for their lack of political acumen and force. Other men, less reliable in their party fealty, supply compensation by their ability and activity as organizers and generals. Mr. Monk shone in neither way.
Politically speaking, he was neither loyal nor competent.

"It is true that the Conservative party has been hard put to it for capable men for the front of the battle in Quebec since Laurier first swept the province. Still, Mr.
Monk was probably the worst choice for leadership that could have been made, all the worse because he is in some respects a man of impressive personality, because he is a man of fine presence, of culture, of high personal integrity, of undoubted honesty of purpose, and an excellent speaker.
But he has possessed neither organizing ability nor the power to enthuse, neither personal magnetism nor political breadth of view, neither activity nor industry, and where a man like Cartier or Langens or Chapleau could have been inspiring an aggressive fighting spirit in the Conservatives of Quebec, Mr. Monk has been useless throughout and now, fortunately, disappears into the Bourassa ranks.

A Tribute to Laurier.

"It is quite likely that a number, a large number, of the most prominent French-Canadian Conservatives go with Mr. Monk for the time being. The active, practical co-operation of Canada in the British Empire is, unfortunately, not as popular in Quebec as elsewhere in Canada. Nevertheless, in response to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's call, the Liberals of Quebec joined hands with their fellow Canadians in this regard. For this the dominion and the empire owe recognition and thanks to that great Canadian—and a strong man like Cartier or like Chapleau could have carried Quebec Conservatives the same way as each of them did, in a somewhat parallel course.

"But Mr. Monk—he preferred instead to open fire upon his party, to cut himself loose from his life-long political convictions and associations in order to denounce to his countrymen the single idea of their sharing in effective preparation for the defence of the flag under which they live; this while loudly professing loyalty to it."

"And in the absence of strength or courage or statesmanship in the Conservative leader in Quebec, the Conservative cause there, and the imperial cause, and the true, the self-respecting, the manly Canadian cause lost grip in the province, the party men there lost sight, and for the moment, the Conservative ranks seem to have been disintegrated into ammunition for Mr. Bourassa."

Many people find that no matter how carefully they watch their diet and deny themselves this, that or the other favorite dish, still after every meal gas forms in the stomach and everything seems to turn sour.

Besides causing great discomfort, this condition makes it impossible to get the full benefit from the food eaten, and the body is continually starving with a full stomach.

Father Morrisey's No. 11 Tablets promptly relieves this and other stomach disorders. Each Tablet has the power of digesting a pound and three-quarters of food, so that though the stomach may be in a very bad or weakened condition one tablet taken after each meal will insure proper digestion and prevent sourness, gas in the stomach, pain or discomfort.

The case of Miss Maggie Leahy, of West Franklin, Ont., is a sample of what Father Morrisey's No. 11 Tablets can do. Writing on Jan. 5th, 1910, she says:

"Your No. 11 Stomach Tablets suit my case exactly, as I am ever so much better since using them than I had been for the last seven years. I could hardly eat anything that would not turn sour on my stomach, or cause gas. My Doctor said it was Catarrh of the Stomach. I had no pain, but gas after eating. The first tablet I took gave me relief, and I am still continuing their use."

If you happen to eat a little too much for dinner, or something that does not agree with your Stomach, just take a No.
11 Tablet and you will feel all right in a few minutes.

If you have been troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia a course of Father Morrisey's No. 11 Tablets will soon put your stomach on a healthy course, and you will be able to eat all you want of the best food.
