The Rev. Dr. Parker, of London, announces that in his new church, the City Temple, now nearly completed, there is to be a pew reserved for American visitors, which will be be distinguished by an American eagle.

The Emperor of Russia's brother sent a casket of diamonds from Caucasia as a wedding present for his niece, but when it arrived at St. Petersburg it was found to be cmpty. It was opened on the road by means of a false key.

The girls of Afton, Lowa, resolved to have nothing to do with the young men who drink, smoke, chew, swear or drive fast horses. But when the fellows began making up to the girls of a neighboring town, they weakened.

Many of the ladles are disappointed with the new bonnet, lift is a nondescript sort of affair, and it is difficult to tell which is front and which is back. The grapes, grass and various flowers give it a rural appearance, at all eyents.
