

- (Feb. 19, 1957) concerning use of MB-1 rocket over Canada, 77-78; US Department of Defence preliminary proposals for use of over Canada and preliminary Canadian response, 13-16, 18-28; US draft note concerning use of MB-1 rocket over Canada, 48-49; US State Department proposals for use of over Canada and preliminary Canadian response, 38-48;
- general commitments, 29-38, 68-71; extension of air defence combat zone to Mid-Canada Line, 29, 36-38; improvements in Pinetree System, 70-71; incorporation of BOMARC installations into air defence system, 29, 36; increase in number of air defence squadrons and bases, 30-33, 35-36; reduction of NATO aircrew training program to pay for increased continental defence needs, 31-33, 35-36; request for SAC refuelling facilities, 29; problems in air defence situation, 68-70; site surveys for heavy radar stations and gap filler radar stations, 29, 36-38; Texas Tower on Brown's Bank: construction of, 33-34;
- integration of operational control of Canada-US forces, 17, 25-27, 53-62, 66-68, 71-77, 79-83
- Cabinet Defence Committee (CDC) consideration of integration proposals: deferment on decision on integration after change of government, 82-83
- draft memorandum to CDC advocating: Combined Chiefs of Staff consideration of, 76-77; Department of External Affairs views on, 71-73; text of, 73-75
- eighth report of the Canada-US Military Study Group: approval of preparation of paper for CDC based on, 68; Combined Chiefs of Staff consideration and approval in principle of, 66-68; recommendations of Report, 53; text of report of the Ad Hoc Group of, 53-62
- memorandum to CDC advocating: Department of External Affairs views on, 81-82; text of, 79-80
- US request for study of integration and Canadian reply, 17, 27
- CZECHOSLOVAKIA: see also under Poland (wheat sales)
- trade with Canada, 986-998; Canadian proposal to allow Omnitrade Limited staff increase for reduction of staff of Czechoslovak consulate in Montreal and delivery of aide memoire concerning (Oct. 31, 1956), 992-995; Czechoslovak representations to increase Omnitrade staff, 991; delays in processing visas for Czechoslovak commercial visitors to Canada, 996-997; history of Omnitrade Limited in Canada, 986-987; Czechoslovak non-compliance with Canadian request for reduction of consular staff and delivery of Canadian note (Jan. 18, 1957) reiterating Canadian position, 997-998; representations to Czechoslovak officials and delivery of aide memoire (May 24, 1956) concerning issuance of visas for Omnitrade Limited officials in Canada, 988-989; size of Czechoslovak diplomatic and consular staff in Canada, 991-992, 994; surveillance of Czechoslovak diplomatic personnel in Canada, 989-990; treatment of Canadian diplomatic personnel in Prague, 987-988
- D
- DENMARK: see under Western European Integration (European Free Trade Area)
- DISTANT EARLY WARNING (DEW) LINE
- operation by US personnel, 174-178; agreement to allow US to continue operating sites until 1963, 175-176; costs, 175-176; statement prepared for Permanent Joint Board on Defence, 176-178
- re-supply of sites
- Eastern Arctic, 174, 178-180; costs, 179-180
- Western Arctic, 166-173; Advisory Committee on Northern Development consideration of, 167, 172-173; Alaska Freight Lines: unauthorized re-supply of sites, 168-169; Northern Transportation Company: use of Mackenzie River route, 166-168; US approval of Mackenzie River route, 173; US reservations concerning Mackenzie River route, 169-171
- E
- EASTERN EUROPE: see also under Poland, Hungary, Hungarian Revolution, USSR (CBCIS broadcasts to USSR and Soviet satellites; official visits and exchanges; foreign policy since Stalin's death; Twentieth Party Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union), Yugoslavia
- Soviet satellites, Canadian relations with, 859-879; economic situation in satellite countries, 871-872; effect of Hungarian Revolution on relations with satellites: increase in intake of Hungarian refugees,