THE REPORTER

FARMERSVILLE, SEPT. 4, 1888.

LOCAL NEWS.

ROCKWATER WANTED.—Sleazy work all the year round for the best of the best.

Yesterday was the first day of the model school term.

Mr. C. Hane, of Iroquois, spent a short vacation in Farmersville.

Miss M. Boyd, of Brockville, visited friends in Farmersville last week.

The rate for S. S. No. 6 (Farmersville) is $1,248 for the current year.

Miss Cassie Knorr, of Clarendon, spent a few days in Farmersville last week.

We regret to learn of the serious illness of Mr. John Cars, of the firm of Wilcox & Cars.

Mr. Chas. Shipman and wife, of Madrid, N. Y., spent a few days last week at Mrs. Shipman's father's, Mr. A. Derbyshire, Plum Hollow.

The Rev. Jos. Cornell, of Malabar, Que., is visiting friends here.

He preached a good sermon in the Methodist Church last Sunday evening.

Mr. F. Blanchard, of the Brockville Times staff, spent Sunday with his parents here.

Mr. E. F. Blanchard, of the Brockville Times, also spent a few days in Farmersville.

The old saying that "the rascality of man is great," has been forcibly exemplified by some of our former well known citizens, during the past few weeks.

Messrs. Henry Plumsted and Aden Wiltse, two well known former residents of this village and vicinity, are visiting friends here. They reside at Clinton, Ontario.

The Rev. James Pullar will preach in St. Paul's Church, on Sabbath evening at 7 o'clock. Sabbath school and pastor's bible class in the afternoon at half past two. All are cordially invited.

Charlie Fisher arrived here last week from Inlet Lake, North West Territories, where he has been acting as telegraph operator on the C. P. R. He will remain until about the 25th inst.

Mr. Gibbard, whose scholarly attainments and social qualities made him a successful assistant in our high school and a popular member of society, is now modern language master in the Ingersoll Collegiate Institute.

Farmers and others interested in the fair here to be held in this county should subscribe for the REPORTER now. We are in a position to tell the public more about these exhibitions than all the other papers in the county combined.

Mr. Avery Kinsmen and wife, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Lamb for the past few weeks. Mr. Kinsmen is a prosperous merchant of Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Kinsmen is a cousin of J. P. and C. L. Lamb, of this place.

Since our last issue Mr. Geo. Sherman, late of Vienna, near St. Thomas, received the appointment of principal of Farmersville model school, and entered upon his duties last week. Mr. Sherman comes with high recommendations.

Dr. Hart wishes us to correct the erroneous report that he was about to remove from Farmersville. He wishes it distinctly understood that he has no such intention, but will be found at his office at all hours ready to attend professionally all who may require his services.

Mr. Will Toller, who has occupied a position with A. Parish & Son for the past four years, severed his connection with that firm on Saturday last, to accept a position in the Brockville office of Messrs. Shaw & Co. Mr. Toller is one of our most reliable young men, and is sure to make his mark in the world. We wish him success.

The committee of management of the picnic in connection with Christ's Church Sunday School, wish us to announce that owing to the inclement state of the weather on Saturday morning last, they conclude to postpone the picnic until next Saturday, the 8th inst. The steamer will leave the Charleston wharf at 9:30 a.m. All are cordially invited.

Posters were issued from this office during the past week, announcing the dates of the fairs at Unionville, Frankville, Newboro, Lyndhurst and Elgin. The majority of these bills were two sheet posters, with lithographic headings, and were gotten up in a manner that shows that the REPORTER office takes no back seat or second place in this line of work. Look them over and judge for yourselves.

Want of space prevents us giving a synopsis of our trip over to the Westport, last week. The journey was a very enjoyable one, and we picked up many items of interest which we would like to give to the public. However, as soon as the fairs are over we propose going over the route again, when we will probably have something interesting to say about the towns on the line of railway, and shall probably give illustrations of some of the principal points of interest in those places.

One day last week Mrs. Daniel Blanchard, formerly a well known resident of Greenbush, surprised her many friends and relatives in that section by dropping in among the swarms. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard have resided for the past five years at Friend, Nebraska, and as Mrs. Blanchard had made a promise to visit her old home at the expiration of five years, she availed herself of the advantages of a cheap excursion and the company of a number of friends from the same place to make her promised visit. She is looking remarkably well and will probably remain in this section for two or three months.

We had a pleasant call last week from one of our old friends and school mates, Mr. Hiram W. Blanchard, formerly of Greenbush, but now of Southport, Ont. Nearly thirty years ago Mr. Blanchard left Greenbush and settled in Western Ontario. Dame Fortune seems to have smiled upon him, for he has amassed a snug competence, and is also in the enjoyment of excellent health. Mr. Blanchard is on a visit to his friends in Greenbush and Farmersville, and while in this section will make his home at his brother David's at Greenbush.

Yesterday we noticed a crowd in front of J. Thompson's grocery. The attraction was the unusual sight of nearly half a carload of tea being carted from the station and piled up in front of the store. We counted fifty five sized chests of tea in the pile, and going inside the store found that Mr. Thompson had nearly half that quantity already in stock. The consignment just received was ordered through
