

indicated in Sept. 9th. They all speak very lightly of him & we hope he will be a success.
Mr Brown, who used to be our minister, went to St. Joseph's market. Harry used at the General Assembly in Port Louis in June & stayed in the same house as Rev. George St. John.
While we were leaving candidates we had who who Eden, Mr. D.
Dobie of Salmonton & Mr. St. John of Lambrook. I think it was, Mr. Dobie was not at our house but Mr.
St. John was & was speaking of the times you used to have at 'Lancet'.
We must have been at that about
