

much in love, and I fancy that is what Count's mood. Parents haven't much say in these things these days! but I don't think any of our children would marry anyone of whom we disapproved. I am really very fond of Gordon, I think they will be happy together, of course, his salary is big enough for them to live very comfortably on it. They want to be married on Feb. 10th if we can't manage it, but we really haven't had time to discuss it. There is a lot to be done for a wedding, but with the future so uncertain, they want to take their happiness when they can.
 I had a letter from John saying they arrived in Memphis on Christmas Eve and will probably be here in two days. John will go back to work on the 1st if all is well. Am glad they had the complete change as it will make it easier for them to begin again.
 Harry goes to London on the 2nd. He is young and passed their exams but the other two had to write up in Toronto yesterday. They got through. Harry has been visiting in
