

THE KINGDOM OF EARTH 329

one can do great things in the world; but there are times, though, when I think that death is more splendid."

"Too often," he answered, looking back toward the chapel, "it is the man who lives and the woman who dies."

THE END