

1
4 G 84732655

ON Christmas Eve I sat alone musing. A magic word possessed my thoughts and soon transported me to dreamland, therein to meet a little band of happy children—my first playmates—merry as of yore.

Then entered my latter found friends to join the company : and the full chorus of those familiar voices was, to me, gleeful as a Christmas Carol.