

responding Member of the Washington Entomological Society, and was at the time of his death President of the Entomological Society of Ontario and Honorary Secretary of the Royal Society of Canada. He was the first man to urge the formation of the Association of Economic Entomologists, which is the most important society of its kind in the world. For many years he was a member of the Editing Committee of the Canadian Entomologist, and quite recently, since their beginning, was on the Editorial Boards of the Journal of Economic Entomology and of the Annals of the Entomological Society of America.
