ITEMS.

Students find the new reading room very cold as yet.

Med. Footing Supper comes off on Friday, 27th of October.

The Founders' Festival is to come off on Friday, 10th of November.

Blanket tossing is getting to be a favorite amusement at the Gymnasium. Punch says:--" Ladies' hair is generally in inverse proportion to their

The revivalistic spirit now goes by the appellation of "highly stimulating evangelical cayenne."

A base-ball match is being arranged between "Saints and Sinners," (i. e. Meds, and Theologs.)

The Freshmen Classes are unusually large this year. We publish their names and residences in this number.

Class of '79, Arts and Sciences, is the only one that has appointed its officers, as yet. They are Messrs. H. H. Wood and J, F. Scriver.

Considerable changes have been made in the Arts and Sciences time-tables this year, causing much trouble and confusion, but to all appear-ances we are settled at last. Freshman No. 1.—"I say, have you noticed that when Prof. comes in, he always warms his hands before going to his room?" No. 2.—"Warms his hands? Where?" No. 1.—"Why over the re-re-re-refrigerator to be sure!"

The younger students of the various faculties should attend the meetings of the University Literary Society, and we promise them much benefit if they do so. The notices give the business as "re-organization," but if greater interest is not shown in the Society, the business will soon be "disreganization."

Prof.—"Is it Mr. Blank I see without his gown?" Prof.—"18 II Mr. DIAIR I Bee WILHOUT II B.—"Yes, sir."

Prof.—"Where is your gown, Mr. B.?"
B.—"Not here, sir."

Prof.—"That's obvious."

Prof. Armstrong, late Professor of Engineering in McGill, has accepted a position in Leeds. Yorkshire, E. His place will be supplied by Mr. Ernest Harris, who has lately been connected with the Intercolonial Railway. We understand, however, that Mr. Harris's engagement is

Here is Mark Twain's way of saying, "Accidents will happen in even the best regulated families."—"It is believed by many honest and right-feeling, though possibly mistaken men—though more or less might be weightily said both or and against the proposition—that infelicious conjunctions of cause and effect will eventuate even in fireside circles, accustomed to the most exact, exhaustive, elaborate and usufruct systems of domestic dominion!"

A third year wag had some fun in the vacation. While staying at a small country place, he noticed a flock of geese in front of the hotel, Happening to have some crab-apples in his pocket, a luminous idea struck together, he flung the bunch on the ground before the geese. Four of them swallowed each a crab, and then the flock in general held an indignation mation meeting, and third year retreated into the hotel in an embryonic apoplectic fit.
