GRAHAM BROS., CLAREMONT, ONT.

STOCK GOSSIP.

For writing to advertisers please mention the Farmer's Advocate.

In this issue Mr. James Smith, Maple Lodge, Ont., advertises a few Shorthorn bulls for sale. In sending us this ad. he writes as follows:—"Our stock are doing very nicely. The young bulls we are offering should be very satisfactory to their purchasers. They have the right beef characteristics, and are bred from deep milking dams for several generations. This must be a great consideration now, when dairying is becoming so general and profitable."

Among the auction sales to come off this month will be that of Mr. Hugh Thompson, St. Marys, which is comprised of Shorthorn bull calves and heifers, which, we understand, are superior animals, and are chiefly of Cruickshank blood; many of these are the get of imported bulls. The heifers of suitable age will either be in calf or have calves at foot. Then there is an imported Clydesdale stallion, sired by McCammon, rising six years old, and a number of registered Berkshire pigs. The catalogues, which are now ready, will give further information.

Messrs. H. Cargill & Son, Cargill, Ont., under date of Feb. 13th, writes:—"Although farmers are complaining of hard times, we can say that this has been so far the best season for sales we have had, having sold six Shorthorn bulls, all 10 months old or under, already, whereas other seasons at this time we would have none sold. It would appear from this that we grow the kind of materials wanted, and farmers are a-waiting to this fact. Prices have been very fair. This may be accounted for by the fact that the calves were the best lot we have had. We have but three bull calves left, two reds and a roan, all good ones. Have some aged cows and heifers we would sell at right prices."

We are informed that the Southdown Sheep Breeders' Association of England has through its Secretary, Mr. W. W. Chapman, Live Stock Export Agent, Fitzalan House, Arundel Street, Strand, London, England, offered to its Sister Society of the United States, twenty sets of the Southdown Flock Book of England, to be awarded as additional premiums at ten State Fairs in the States and Canada, held during the autumn of the year 1894. The selection of such fairs being left to the President, J. H. Potts, Esq., and the Secretary, J. E. Springer, Esq., of the American Southdown Society. Breeders of Southdown sheep will thus be able to secure a set of three volumes, free of charge, of the value of $3.00, the total value of the gift being $150.

Mr. J. C. Snell, Edmonton, Ont., makes a change in his advertisement of Jersey cows, heifers and calves in this issue. Mr. Snell reports an active demand for Jerseys from many sections of Ontario and some from Manitoba and Quebec. The increasing interest in good butter making turns the attention of the people to the butter cow, and many farmers are finding that one or two Jerseys in a dairy herd add very much to the quantity, color and firmness of the butter as well as to the quantity. We have been to the milk of our cows with the Babcock Tester lately, and they are in the best of condition, to 6 per cent. butterfat, which we think is pretty good, and one cow, tested by the churn recently, made a record of 17 lb. 4 oz. in seven days. This is not a bad sort of cow for a poor man to have.

A. & G. Rice, the Holstein breeders of Curries, Oxford Co., have sold the richly-bred bull, King Pieterje Jewel, to Mr. W. W. Brown, of Lys. This animal is most excellently bred, as his name shows, combining two of those great record-breaking strains that have made Holsteins famous. His dam is a Pieterje Jewel, sired by Pieterje 2nd's Holland King, whose dam, Pieterje, holds the yearly milk record; and the young bull's sire is the Jewel Netherland-bred stock bull, whose dam, Jewel, was one of the greatest all-round show cows of the breed, and the score card, churn or pail. Geo. Rice, of the firm of A. & G. Rice, is off in search of more high-performing Holsteins, and will visit many herds in the west. As he goes with the motto—quality first, price second. Canadians may look for some valuable acquisitions to their dairy stock.

MAPLE GROVE STOCK FARM.

Messrs. C. J. Gilroy & Son, of Glen Buell, Ont., have made a nice start in the breeding of Holstein cattle, Berkshire and Yorkshire pigs. The Holsteins consist of two bulls and six females. Inka Kathleen's son, No. 18685, was bred by Mr. W. B. F. Iger, of Kingston. He was sired by Ethelka's Prince, No. 18357, dam Inka Kathleen 1443, and secured first prize at the Ontario class under two years. Sterling Prince, No. 20304, sired by Lady Salatine 2nd's Prince, No. 11738, dam Jane J., No. 10299, is a gray, young fellow, and is for sale to the Flower, No. 31089, sired by Hur of Brockville. 13661, dam Iona J., is a young cow that is a wonderful milker, both for quantity and quality. In 1893 Berkshires were sold to the stock, a pair being obtained from S. Coxworth, Claremont. Of these, the bear Sterling Boy is a typical Berkshire, and out of imported stock. The sow Champion Lass was the first prize pig under six months at Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa. There are also a number of other good, useful sows. Paddy 813 heads their Yorkshire herd, and is from Mr. J. E. Brethour's stock. Maria 940 is out of imported stock, and is raising a nice litter of young pigs.

MR. ISRAEL CRESSMAN'S BERKSHIRES. During recent perambulations we were permitted to visit the well-regulated farm owned and managed by Mr. Israel Cressman, importer and breeder of English Berkshire hogs. The farm consists of 300 acres of rich soil, and is beautifully surrounded by thriving maples. It is conveniently situated, three-quarters of a mile from the village of New Dundee, Waterloo County, and about five and a-half miles from Peterborough, a station on the G. T. R. main line. On the occasion of our visit Mr. Cressman courteously led us through his many stables, proudly displaying his large stock of thoroughbreds, and explaining that his efforts have been directed chiefly towards securing length, depth and uniformity in the shape of the hog. He emphasized his statement that he does not exhibit at the various agricultural exhibitions, being cognizant of the fact that the heavy feeding necessary to fit the stock for exhibition purposes seriously injures them for breeding purposes. He prefers to forego the honors of competition, and keep his stock simply in a thriving condition to secure development to maturity. Upon being interrogated respecting sales, he replied that he is shipping hogs to various parts of Canada and the United States. He added, with considerable enthusiasm, that all the sales he has effected with distant purchasers were the fruits of his advertising in the columns of the FARMER'S ADVOCATE. He thought there was no journal that so effectively reached the farming and stock-raising community as his favorite—the ADVOCATE. His stables contain many fine specimens of the Longstop and Windsor Supreme blood. Dorset Chieftain, bred by N. Benjafield, Motcombe, Dorset, England, is a typical Berk., weighing about 7 cwt. He has left some of the finest stock in the country, and is greatly admired by all breeders who have yet seen him. Two sows of exceptionally fine quality were imported last year. They have raised good, large litters, of which several grand young boars and sows remain for sale. Kingston Sow XVII. Majestic, the distinction of being half-sister to the sow enjoys, that took second honors at the World's Fair, also half-sister to the boar that captured the World's Fair Sweepstakes prize. In the language of the drummer, Mr. Cressman "carries a full line of samples," ranging in age from hours to years, and in size from a mere pup to the developed beast of nearly six feet in length. We were shown a number of communications received from purchasers who speak in words of highest praise of the stock procured from this gentleman.
