OBITUARY.

FUNERAL OF MR. J. H. SEMPLE. Amid a great concourse of relatives, friends and former associates in business and on the Catholic School Board, the remains of the late Mr. J. Hugh Semple were taken to St. Patrick's Church, and after the funeral service there were taken for interment to Cote des Neiges Cemetery.

St. Patrick's Church had been draped in mourning colors, and about the catafalque numberless lights were burning. Rev. Father McShane, the pastor, received the body and celebrated the solemn Requiem Mass, attended by Rev. Father Singleton, as deacon, and Rev. Father Elliott as sub-deacon. In the sanctuary were Rev. Father I. Kavanagh, S.J., Rev. Abbe Perrier, visitor of the Catholic schools, Rev. Canon Adam, and several other city clergymen.

The chief mourners in the funeral cortege were Dr. E. J. Semple and Mr. G. Hugh Semple, advocate, the sons. The other son, Mr. Henry Semple, is in the West, while the other members of the family at home are the widow, one sister, Miss Mary Semple, and a daughter, Miss Stella Semple. Other relatives in the funeral cortege were Dean Murray, Brockville, and Rev. Father Charles Murray, Coburg, brothers-in-law; Rev. Isidore J. Kapanagh, S.J., Loyola College, H. J. Kavanagh, K.C., R. DEATH OF MISS DAISY WHELAN

Miss Daisy Whelan, second daughter of Mr. John P. Whelan, died at her father's residence, 31 Durocher street, in this city, on Friday, the 13th instant. Her illness was very brief, only three months. And taken as she was in the fullness of her youth, before the bereaved ones could scarcely realize the impending calamity, her loss is of the saddest and her absence leaves an aching void in the hearts of all who loved her. But Divine Providence granted that all the members of her family and the priest himself were actually in prayer at her bedside as she peacefully passed away.

She was buried on Sunday afternoon. The funeral service took place on Tuesday morning at St. Patrick's Church, Rev. Father Elliott, her confessor, officiating, assisted by Rev. Fathers McShane and O'Reilly.

Through the kindness of the ladies of the Sacred Heart, among whom she spent so many happy years of her short sweet life, a solemn requiem Mass will be said in their chapel on St. Alexander street on Tuesday, the 24th inst., at 8 a.m. Requiescat in pace.

Leandre Belanger, N.P., on the twenty-seventh of August, 1908, under No. 19025 of the minutes of said Mr. Belanger.
