Bro. W. P. Killackev visited our branch in the C. M. B. A. hall on the evening of Dec. 10th. In spite of the inclemency of the weather there were quite a number present. He spoke for about two hours. It was not only most delightful to those present but it was also a surprise to members, as the majority of the members thought that the lecture would be solely for the benefit of new members. While that part of it was not forgotten, but very eloquently portrayed, he gave some wholesome advice to the members, which was well received. Branch 27 is of the opinion that a man like Bro. Killackey to visit them once every six months would be the making of us. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered him in a few well chosen romarks by Bros. Wm. Gleeson and M. J. Kelly. After the meeting an adjournment was made where a recherche lunch was provided, and after toasts, songs and speeches everybody went home well pleased with having met Bro. Killackey.

St. Paul's Commandery, No. 122, Knights of St. John, held a very pleasant and successful meeting in their rooms, Richmond hall, Richmond street, Toronto, on Sunday, December 19. The most important business, after the usual routine work was done, was the election of officers for the ensuing year. The following were the successful candidates: Chaplain, Rev. Father Cline; President, M. K. McGuinn; First Vice President, M. K. McGuinn; First Vice President and Recording Secretary, W. A. Hodgson, Financial Secretary, T. K. Haify; Treasurer, F. Hallman; Messenger, P. Farley; Sergeant at. Arms, J. Mooney; Trustees, P. Farley; G. W. Dawzey, W. A. Hodgson, G. Hayes and E. McGee.

After some stirring addresses from our own and visiting Brothers, we adjourned, to meet the first Sunday in the New Year.

The last regular meeting of Division No. 3 was held in Cameron Hall on Thursday evening last. The attendance of the members and visiting Brothers was unusually large, it being the election of officers for the year 1898. Great interest was manifested in the meeting. After very keen contest for the different offices, the following were duly elected; President, J. J. Brennan; vice-president, E. Moore; rec. sec., F. Lyons; fin. sec., P. J. Lowe; treas, G. Moore; sentinal, C. W. Pircce; sergeant-at-arms, Wm. Donnelly; marshal, M. Fahry; standing committee, J. J. O'Neil, J. McLiroy, H. McLaffrey and P. O'Meara. Several important questions were discussed, among which was the "Insurance." Bro. McCaffrey, provincial president, explained to the members the wonderful cheapness of the assessment; that it was possible under the existing system, for the porrest man in the organization to become insured, and reported that he had received word from sible under the existing system, for the poores man in the organization to become insured, and reported that he had received word from all over the province of the many Brothers who were availing themselves of the opportunity to insure. Fifteen members gave in their money as willing to be insured. If all the Brothers in the outlying towns would follow No. 3's example the insurance in the A. O. H. would be sure to become a factor in building up the organization. No. 3 meets first and third Thursdays in each month, when they are pleased to meet visiting Brothers.

A DESERVED HONOR.

Mr. James E. Day, the popular young Catholic barrister of Gueiph, was, on Tuesday, Ilin inst... tendered a cemplimentary dinner at Webb's by a number of his Toronto friends, the occasion being his recent-removal from that city to take up the practice of his profession in Gueiph. Mr. Day, who since being called to the Bar in 1894 has been one of the best known of the younger members of his profession in Toronto and actively identified with the work of several Catholic societies, has en, joyed a very high degree of popularity, and this was made evident by the widespread regret expressed at his removal. The dinner was a parely informaliatur, being confined to Mr. Day's immediate personal friends. There were present: Rev. Father Brennan, C. S. B., Messra, W. T. Kernahan, J. D. Warde, Andrew Cottam, D. J. Beennan, H. F. McIntosh, Dr. Waiter McKeown, Dr. McMahon, L. V. McBrady, W. T. J. Lee, T. P. Phelan, W. Prendergast, P. F. Cronin, John Meiady, M. Quinn, Jas. McCabe, H. V. Ferguson, Wm. O'Connor, F. O. Higgins, Walter Boland, John Laior, J. P. Hynes and Jas. Burns. Mr. W. T. Kernahan occupied the chair and Mr. H. F. McIntosh the vice-chair, and during the evening addresses expressive of the high esteem in which Mr. Daly is held in Toronto, were delivered by Rev. Father Brennan, Messrs, Kernahan, Cottan, Warde, McIntosh, Lee, D. McKeown, Dr. Mc. Mahon, L. V. McBrady, and others. In cesponse Mr. Day made a very felicitous speech reminiscent of his six years residence in Toronto. The other tonsts were "The Ciergy, proposed by Mr. McIntosh, to which Mr. Warde, Achairman of the C. M. B. A. Advisory Board, and Mr. Lee, High Chief Ranger of the C. O. F. made happy responses. companionship a source of pleasure and profit to all with whom she was acquainted. She was a good sister and an attentive daughter; no wonder, then, that her parents, brothers and sisters are bowed down in gref. Yet there is hope for them that mourn: there is consolation in their sadness—consolation in the blessing of a good death.

The remains placed in a beautiful casket, were conveved to her father's residence here, on Monday afternoon.

The funeral took place on Wednesday morning to St. Patrick's church, and the large procession which followed her remains (and the beautiful floral tributes) testified to some extent the sympathy of her sorrowing friends. Mass was offered up for the repose of her soul by Rev. Father O'Neill. Then all that was mortal of her who was loved so well on earth was consigned to its last resting-place, beside her brother who had preceded her but a few years, and whom she loved so well.

We extend to the family our sincere and heart felt sympathy in this their second sad affliction, and trust the prospect of another theeting in the hereafter will assuage their grief and afford consolation to their sorrowing hearts. May she rest in peace!

We regret to announce the death of Mrs.

MR. John Quigley, Hastings.

Again it is our painful duty to record the demise of another of our much respected citizens, at the age of forty eight, in the person of Mr. John Quigley, who shock his conling here has taken an active part in everything here has taken an active part in everything pertaining to the advancement of the village. For several years he filled the position of councilor, during which time for the village. For several years he filled the position of councilor, during which time for the village is the organization and establishment of our fire department over which he had personal oversight; and the iron bridge. He was one of the leading spirits in the organization of St. Marry's Court. C. O. F., and represented the said court at the High Court in Ohicago three years ago. He was a tanner and currier by trade, in politics a reformer, and in religion a Catholic. He was born at Oshawa. Ont. in the month of June 24, 1849, where he grew up to manhood. On November 27, 1849, he led to the altar, Mary Welsh, his now sorrowing widow, sister of our tow sman, Mr. John Welsh, of the firm of Welsh & Co. In 1891 he came to this village with his brother in law, (Mr. Welsh) and built the tannery, since which time the incre-se of trade has necessitated the extension of their premises to fully double its original capacity, and from the first has been a great source of help to the village. Visit of the Governor General and Lady Aberdeen to St. Joseph's Con-

Lady Aberdeen to St. Joseph's Convent.

Very novel, and as beautiful and appropriate sit was novel, was the reception tendered their Excellencies the Governor-General and and Lady Aberdeen by the Sisters and pupils of St. Joseph's convent yesterday afternoon. As the party stood in the beautiful chapel of the convent upon their arrival, there was carried to them from the concert hall the music of youthful voices as they poured forth the National Anthom, and later, when they had taken their seats in the centre of the hall, with a burning scroll bearing the word "Welcome" immediately before them, and a portrait of Her Majesty neatly draped with flags in full view, the ranks of giris on the platform uniformly costumed and bearing clusters of lady Dorothea roses, led by a line of children dressed in white and decorated with the Gordon ivv. contressed respectfully, and, as the tinkling of a bell gave the signal, burst forth with a chorus of welcome, "Hall Our Sovereign's Choice."

Then Miss Isabella Curtis, one of the pupils, stepped forward and read a gracefully worded poem composed for the occasion by one of the Sisters, paying a tribute to the past records of their Excellencies, and expressing the joy among the pupils caused by the visit of the representative of her Majesty and his esteemed consort. The same exquisite taste characterized the greeting of the little ones, who, tripping lightly across the platform and down the steps in perfect order, dropped each a floral offering at the feet of the distinguished visitors excressing their joy in words set to the air of "Annie Laurie" as they came and went.

The violin due by Misses Kenny, Downey, Falconbridge, and Hughes, a recitation, "A Northern Heroine," by Miss Kathleen McDoneil, and the vocal trio by Misses Curtis, Hughes and Curtis were all splendslyl executed, reflecting great credit upon the Sisters in charge.

An interesting feature of the proceedings was the presentation by their Excellencies of certificates won by pupils of the academy at the university an vent.

icitous words, in which he said that he knew the convent appreciated the honor that had been conferred upon it by the visit. His Excel-lency represented the power and Lady Aber-deen the goodness of Her Majesty, and as such both were most welcome. As the class of youthful voices sang the fare-well chorus there was but one opinion among those present, that a more beautifully con-

As the members were no doubt aware, they had been receiving a like amount from the doctor annually for some considerable time, and as the society had no regular revenue and received no grant-civic or otherwise—but depended entirely on the voluntary contributions of members and friends, they had reason to be particularly grateful to Dr. Smith for his generosity.

The Archibishop addressed the meeting, and while expressing approval of the work the society was doing for the poor and needy in the city, he regretted that the membership was not keeping up with the growing wants which must be expected in a large city like Toronto. He could not understand why more ofour active young men did not join the ranks and made some suggestions as to means which should be adopted in order to recruit the conferences.

After remarks by several of the meeting adjourned.

ARCHDIOCESE OF OTTAWA. Address and Presentation to the Rev.

Metcalfe Dec. 14, 1897.

A very pleasing and interesting event took place on the first Sunday of the month in the St. Catherine Catholic Church, Metcalfe, when the parishioners took occasion of presenting the Rev Father Kavanagh with a costly set of furs and a purse, accompanied by an address. The Rev. Father, who was completely taken by surprise, re-ponded eloquently, and thanked the xood people of Metcalfe for this outward mark of respect shown to the sacred ministry.

The address was read by W. J. Casserly, and thanking the too furs and purse were presented by Mr. H. McLinden.

The address was as follows:

To the Rev. Father Kavanagh:

DIOCESE OF HAMILTON.

His Lordship Bishop Dowling went to Berlin on the evening of the 17th inst., the object of his visit being to confer orders on a number of seminarians who have been studying theology at St. Jerome's College, in that town. On the arrival of the train, the Bishop was somewhat surprised to find the students of the college drawn up in double file on the platform, each student bearing a lighted torch in his hand. After having received the greetings of the Rev. Fathers Kloepfer ahd Spetz, the Bishop entered a cab, and, headed by the boys, proceeded to the college.

Pathers Kieepfer and Speiz, the Bishop entered a cab, and, headed by the boys, proceeded to the college.

On the following morning at 9 o'clock the ceremony of ordination began. The Bishop was assisted by Rev. Fathers Kleepfer, Speiz, Schweitzer and Weiler. The candidates for the priesthood were: Rev. Messrs. Doyle and Zettler; for deaconship, Rev. Mr. Jankowski; for minor orders, Mr. Williams. The ceremony was very impressive, especially that part where took piace the prostration of those who were to receive sacred orders and the recitation of the litany. At the end of the ceremony the Bishop spoke a few words to the congregation, on the dignity of the priesthood and its great responsibilities. The young priests then gave their biessing to those present, The reverend clergy present were: Very Rev. Vicar-General Elena, Rev. Father Geo. Brohmann. Rev. Father Joseph E. Way:

NO ROOM FOR DYSPEPSIA.

Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets Prevent Its Existence.

Humanity has been afflicted with Dyspepsia, Indigestion and other stomach diseases, since the world began. But, until lately, there were no Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets to cure these complaints.

In years gone by, people had to suffer from Dyspepia, etc. To-day there is no more need to do so than there is for a millionaire to starve with hunger. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure Dyspepsia as easily, and almost as quickly as the millionaire's dollars buy his food. There is nothing boastful in this assertion. Dodd's Dyspepia Tablets cannot help curing these diseases. They cannot possibly have any other effect, once they are taken into the

The ingredients of Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets form the same digestive agent that a healthy, vigorous stemach supplies. Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets di-
