Calcutta, Sept. 22.—Reports from Cashmere are still gloomy. All European eyewitnesses agree that great corruption prevails among the officials. The Maharajah and his ministers show want of energy in relieving the distress of the people. The story has been contradicted, apparently on the authority of Durbar, but it obtained general credence among the people and visitors in the realler. the valley.

In view the doubts entertained of the Amee loyalty to the British this mission is view with distrust, and the opinion is open expressed by commanders of the Engl forces and others that it can only b plained upon the theory that Yako

A patrol of the King's dragoon guards, scouting in the heart of the Nyome, first fell upon his trail, followed it up and ran him to earth. Finding himself surrounded and resistance altogether impracticable, the African monarch advanced to the Captain of the patrol and tendered him his surrender. He was in a greatly exhausted condition, and bore on his person evidence of much privation, suffering and mental disquestude. But he maintained a remarkable self-composure, and in offering his surrender said he had no doubt his captors would extend to him the rights of a royal relation of the patrol and tendered him his surrender. Lendon, Sept. 22.—A dispatch from Sir Garnet Wolseley to the War Office announces that he has signed terms of peace with all the Zulu chiefs, and effected a thorough understanding with them, which in his opinion will preserve the future therough understanding with them, which in his opinion will preserve the future peace of South Africa. One of the provisions of this treaty puts an end to the Zulu military system whereby young warriors of tribes were not permitted to many until they had served in battle and distinguished themselves by bravery. The chiefs who have signed the treaty undertake to prohibit the importation of arms into their territories, and promise to make no declaration of war upon other tribes without consent of the British authorities. At Cape Colony the terms of the treaty, as explained by Sir Garnet Wolseley, appear to be extremely comprehensive and prudent, and reasonable anticipations are now entertained that we have
