A ROPE-RIMMED COLLAR

MEANS COMFORT FOR THE HORSE

To use a ROPE RIMMED COLLAR once is to use it forever. It is hand made and well made. The Rope Rim prevents breaking or wearing into at the throat. The collar is firm yet very flexible and readily adapts itself to the shape of the horse's shoulders. It is impossible for a horse wearing this collar ever to have a sore shoulder.

SORE SHOULDERS CAN BE CURED by using this collar. Being so flexible you can easily shape it to suit the shoulder. The sore not being irritated will quickly heal.

SWEAT PADS are not required when this collar is used.

THIS COLLAR is endorsed by every user, among whom might be mentioned Paul Brett, R. H. Taber, Robt. Sinton, Match Bros. By ordering this collar at once you will make no mistake. Price $5.00. Let me know position of sores, if any, on your horse.

SCALDED BY BOILING FAT

COULDN'T USE HAND FOR A MONTH

Zam-Buk Gave Instant Relief

An accident in a Toronto home might have had very serious consequences had it not been for Zam-Buk. Miss Martha Green, of 9 Claremont St., in taking a pan of boiling fat from the oven spilt it over her right hand. "The boiling fat ran into the palm of my hand," she says, "and over all my fingers. I was almost wild with the pain. The hand became swollen, and large blisters formed all over the palm and along the fingers. For over a month I was unable to use the hand at all. I tried several kinds of salves and liniments, but the wound seemed apparently no better. It was altogether too severe for these preparations to heal.

"About this time I was advised to try Zam-Buk. I stopped using all other preparations and applied it instead. The very first application soothed my hand and seemed to draw out the fire and inflammation; and as I kept on using Zam-Buk the blisters gradually dried up and disappeared. In a very short time the scald was healed completely."

This is but one instance of the uses to which Zam-Buk can be so advantageously applied. It is equally effective for burns, cuts, bruises, abrasions, sprains and stiffness. It also cures eczema, ulcers, sores, blood poisoning, ringworm, scalp sores, chronic wounds, blackheads, pimples, cold sores, chapped hands, and all skin diseases and injuries. Rubbed well on to the chest, in cases of cold, it relieves the aching and tightness, and applied as an embrocation it cures rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, etc. All druggists and stores sell at 50c. a box, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for receipt of price. 3 boxes for $1.25.

GOSSIP

CHOICE OF A BRIAR PIPE

A collegian, who prides himself on the sweetness and color of his briar-wood pipes and pretends to know a lot more about them than any ordinary smoker, spent half an hour in a tobacco shop a few afternoons ago making an addition to his already large collection.

Some pipes he discarded because of the grain in the wood; there was too much stripe or too much birdseye, he remarked. When he found one which suited him he put it aside until he had gathered three or four which apparently were all right, and then came his final test to pick out the best of them all.

He held each with the bowl toward the light, then slowly rubbed his little finger inside. Two he discarded, then repeated the operation with the others until only one remained out of the discard. That one he bought.

"Want 'em smooth inside," he explained. "A briar pipe roughly finished inside the bowl isn't worth bothering with. I wouldn't take one for a gift; wouldn't take the trouble to try to break it in, for it will never be any good. It won't cake up right, and it'll never be nice and sweet.

"I've got a theory that when the inside of the bowl is rough, all the little edges and points of the wood char and burn the first time you smoke it, and a burnt pipe is no good. That's why I always take a pipe that has a bowl as smooth on the inside as on the out.

"Then it doesn't char but cakes up evenly and gets good in a little time. Maybe the theory is wrong, but it has worked out well in my own experience, and some of my friends who have tried it agree with me."

An Ellmore, Saskatchewan man has just been granted a patent on a canvas tightener for binders. The device consists of an adjustable shaft operated by a rack and pinion, the shaft carrying the roller supporting the belt on which are the canvas carriers. By means of this rack and pinion, in conjunction with a ratchet wheel and gravity pawl, the shaft may be instantly retained in either an extended or contracted position as the operator wishes.

VACUUM CLEANER FOR HORSES

The first plant for applying the vacuum as a method of cleaning horses was put in operation recently at one of the big riding academies in New York City, and those who have seen it work say it seems destined to revolutionize the grooming of horses in large stables. The part applied to the horse is a perforated disc, attached to a rubber hose, connecting with a receptacle in which a vacuum is created by means of an electric motor. By merely passing the disc over the coat of the horse, all the dirt, dust, and loose hair, are instantly sucked into the hose and conveyed to the air-tight receptacle by the force of the suction. Not a particle escapes to foul the air of the stable. One man can clean from 10 to 12 horses an hour by this means, as against two or three horses an hour with currycomb and brush, and good judges say he can do it better as well as faster. Many horses, as everybody knows, dislike the operation of hand grooming, but the most irritable and thin-skinned animal

SCIENTIFIC REMEDIES.

Extremely few of the medicines or so called remedies have any scientific basis to rest upon. Many of them produce temporary results because they contain alcohol or other active poisons, but such results are always very short lived and leave the patient in a worse condition than before.

One of the best known instances of a scientific remedy is the use of carbolic acid and other antiseptics for wounds, sores, etc. They act upon the inflamed surface, destroying the germs that promote festering and decomposition, and allow Nature to proceed uninterruptedly with the work of repair. These antiseptics, of course, are always applied direct to the sore or wound.

The remedy known as Orange Lily acts in an exactly similar manner in the troubles known as Women's Disorders. In every case of women's disorders there exists a wounded or inflamed condition of the female organs. Orange Lily is applied direct to the inflamed tissue and its mild and soothing antiseptic elements are absorbed. The decomposing, festering matter is expelled, the delicate organs are soothed and healed and the nerves are relieved and strengthened. These results follow the use of Orange Lily just as surely as wounds are benefited by the use of antiseptics and for the same scientific reason. Orange Lily is a positive, scientific, never-failing remedy and will invariably benefit from the start every case of leucorrhoea, painful periods, falling of the womb and similar troubles.
